

Roosevelt Promises Mooney's Mother To Write Rolph

The South's Standard Newspaper

VOL. LXV., No. 201.

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

The Largest Total City and Suburban and the Largest Total Daily Circulation of any Atlanta Newspaper

ONLY MORNING NEWSPAPER
PUBLISHED IN ATLANTA

ATLANTA, GA., SATURDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 31, 1932.

Entered at Atlanta Post Office
As Second-Class Mail Matter.

A. P. Service
United Press
N. A. N. A.

Daily and Sunday: Weekly 20c. Monthly 20c.
Single Copies: Daily, 5c; Sunday, 10c.

GIRL, WITH FEET BOUND, PULLED TO SHORE FROM PIEDMONT LAKE; POLICE MYSTIFIED

PRESIDENT-ELECT DECLINES TO HINT AT LETTER'S FORM

Executive Expresses Belief There Must Be Something Behind Prisoner's Claims of Innocence in Bombing.

WHITE HOUSE VISIT OF WOMAN FUTILE

Counsel Says Roosevelt Was Sympathetic, Although He "Could Have Been More Direct."

By WALTER T. BROWN.
EXECUTIVE MANSION, ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 30.—(P)—President-elect Roosevelt today received Mrs. Mary Mooney, 54-year-old mother of Tom Mooney, convicted of the San Francisco bombing 16 years ago, and promised he would write Governor Rolph, of California, about the case.

Mr. Roosevelt, who tomorrow retires as governor, told the aged woman, who made a trip around the world in behalf of her son, he would communicate with Mr. Rolph after he leaves office but before he becomes president.

Asked by one of Mrs. Mooney's companions what he would say in the letter, Mr. Roosevelt replied: "I can't say until I consider the case a little more."

Mrs. Mooney, arriving in Albany yesterday, went to the capital but missed the governor and left the executive office. He was unable to see her at the executive mansion last night. Today, while the mother of Mooney waited in the executive office reception room, Mr. Roosevelt called his secretary, Guernsey T. Cross, and invited Mrs. Mooney to see him at the mansion.

Accompanied by Counsel.

Mrs. Mooney was accompanied by Louis B. Scott, representing the Tom Mooney moulder's defense committee; Louis Weinstock, of the American Federation of Labor committee for unemployed miners; and the National Committee for the Defense of Political Prisoners, and William L. Patterson, national secretary of the International Labor Defense. Mrs. Mooney some months ago went to Washington seeking President Hoover's aid in behalf of her son, but was told at the White House that the new executive was too busy to see her.

Scott, commenting upon the meeting with Mr. Roosevelt, said the president-elect was "sympathetic." Scott

Continued in Page 4, Column 6.

J. J. HALLORAN.

POLICE SHAKE-UP TO SAVE $60,000 ASKED IN REPORT

Chambers Will Urge That Connally's and Pool's Posts Be Eliminated, One Police Court Abolished.

Elimination of 35 positions in the Atlanta police department, including the post of chief of detectives, has been proposed by A. Lamar Pool; Night Chief C. P. Connally's post, half a dozen lieutenants, a captain, four matrons and other economies to save from $50,000 to $60,000 a year, will be recommended Monday in the audit of W. Evans Chambers, city survey expert.

Chambers Friday declined to discuss his report, but admitted it would be ready about Monday.

Major recommendations expected to be contained in the document include the following:

1. Elimination of the position of chief of detectives, a post created by councilmanic ordinance, which is sure to precipitate a council battle. Pool has the title of first assistant chief of police in charge of detectives.

2. Abolition of the call men and call cars, operation to be taken from the police station and substitution of radio cars for this service.

3. Demotion of one captain and six lieutenants. There are now four captains and 15 lieutenants.

4. Abolition of the traffic court as now constituted, and the probable abolition of one of the two divisions of the recorder's courts. The latter is protected by a charter amendment, and probably will strike a legislative snag.

5. Consolidation of the signal service, independent of operation of the police and fire systems and the traffic signal lights.

6. Abolition of the post of night chief, held by C. P. Connally, who has the title of assistant chief of police.

7. Abolition of the post of captain of the traffic bureau, held by Captain Jack Malone, and reorganization of the bureau to eliminate duplicate and triplicate services.

8. Synchronization of all traffic control signals to relieve policemen from the duty of watching congested intersections.

9. Abolition of the post of captain of policewomen, held by Mrs. Lois Davis, and reduction of the police women's squad from four to two.

10. Further reduction of the pay

Continued in Page 4, Column 5.

Chevrolet Plant Here Is Working Overtime

An indication of returning prosperity was seen Friday in an announcement by L. S. Costley, regional sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor Company, that the Atlanta plant is working overtime for the first time since it was opened, in order to keep up with the demand.

Since early December the Atlanta plant has been pushed to capacity to take care of dealer orders for retail requirements, Mr. Costley said. During this week the plant has been running 15 and 16 hours a day to keep up the supply of cars and more than 1,200 cars produced this week must be loaded by midnight tonight, he said. Special loading crews have been kept up 24 hours a day. The plant operated on double time last Monday, a holiday.

Twenty-five freight cars arrive at and leave the Chevrolet plant every day, materially increasing car loadings. The unprecedented increase in business is being hailed with joy by other businesses, indicating a better feeling on the part of the buying public, it was said.

Continued in Page 4, Column 3.

In Other Pages

Army Ordinance

Editorial Page

Pierre Van Passen Robert Quillen

Dr. William Brady

Radio Programs

Daily Cross Word Puzzle

The Way You Take It

Comics

Signs

Patricia

Ralph McGill's Break of the Day

Grandstand Rice Jimmy Jones

Society

Theater Programs

Caroline Chaffield

Culture on Bridge

Financial

Tarzan

Atlanta's Wants

News of Georgia

Cross Sections

Call WALnut 6565

If it's a room to rent, an auto, real estate, or furniture to sell; or any one of a hundred different problems that arise in everyday life . . . call WALnut 6565 for an Ad-taker.

List an ad in the want ad pages of The Sunday Constitution. You may take advantage of the larger circulation without any increase in price. It's the economical way to results.

Read and Use
The Constitution's
Want Ad Pages

"First in the Day—First to Pay"

Did He Hide Winnie? GRAND JURY URGES MERCY FOR RUTH; INDICTS HALLORAN

"Tigress" Killed in Self-Defense, Jury Says; Playboy Lumberman Says Charge Absurd.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 30.—(P)—Winnie Ruth Judd's purported "whole truth" story of the Phoenix "trunk murders" caused the grand jury today to recommend that she be spared from the gallows and to indict J. J. Halloran, lumberman and sportsman, as "accessory to the crime."

In a resolution addressed to the Arizona board of pardons and paroles, the grand jury said Mrs. Judd, by her testimony last Wednesday "has convinced this grand jury she was acting in self-defense when she killed Agnes Anne Leroy."

It urged the board of pardons and paroles to commute her sentence to life imprisonment.

Mrs. Judd was tried and convicted for the slaying of Mrs. Leroy in October, and the information still stands against her with the murder of Hedwig Samuelson.

The bodies of the women were sent to Los Angeles in trunks after the body of Miss Samuelson had been disposed of.

Halloran Denies Charge.

Halloran, in his defense, characterized the charge in the indictment as "absolutely false" and "a grave injustice to me."

"There is no basis of truth in the charge," he said, through his counsel, Frank O. Smith, "nor in any statement that produced it. That it is absolutely false and a grave injustice to me will be proved at the proper time."

He appeared in court voluntarily a few minutes after he was informed of the indictment and posted $3,000 bond for his appearance at a preliminary hearing next Tuesday.

The true bill does not involve Halloran in the actual slaying of either woman, but cites him merely as having possessed knowledge of the killing, and as having concealed the knowledge.

Specifically, the true bill charges Halloran "well knowing the said Winnie Ruth Judd to have committed the crime of murder, and with full knowledge of that a felony, to wit, murder, was committed by the said Winnie Ruth Judd . . . did then and there conceal the commission of said crime from the magistrate, and did harbor and protect the person of said Winnie Ruth Judd."

The maximum sentence, in event of conviction, would be five years imprisonment.

Having indicted Halloran, he said.

Continued in Page 4, Column 5.

Sanford Flays Laxity Of Athletic Officials

Georgia University President Attacks Present Definition of "Amateur," Demands Voluntary Action on Rule Changes.

By EDWARD J. NEIL.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—(P)—Dr. Steadman V. Sanford, president of the University of Georgia, rolled a verbal bombshell between the legs of the delegates to the National Collegiate Athletic Association today and promptly started a movement for a new and sensible definition of an amateur athlete.

In a quiet drawl, never acrimonious, often smiling to take the edge from his words, the 56-year-old Georgia education educator said the association plainly overlooked the point of the selection of Rhodes scholars as an amateur.

"If we adopt the rule governing the selection of Rhodes scholars as an amateur, a new day will dawn in college relations.

Hypocrisy will disappear. The present rule or definition so far as it relates to an amateur is out of date—it has been supplanted by the rule governing the selection of Rhodes scholars."

"Now Rhodes scholar has ever been chosen to represent the privilege of representing his college in athletic competition," Dr. Sanford said, "despite the fact that his scholarship frankly comes in part from his athletic ability."

"The English do not consider the Rhodes scholar an amateur of amateurism, then why should we?"

England has advanced—we have fallen behind. By this plan we put emphasis on scholastic attainment—the real purpose of the college."

"We have a rule that states that

"no loan or scholarship can be awarded to an amateur, wholly or in part, for athletic ability." That rule is out of date. We know it. It is largely responsible for the stupefaction that exists—and yet we do not seem to have the land to study and were accepted in that country as true amateurs.

"If we adopt the rule governing the selection of Rhodes scholars as an amateur, a new day will dawn in college relations.

Hypocrisy will disappear. The present rule or definition so far as it relates to an amateur is out of date—it has been supplanted by the rule governing the selection of Rhodes scholars."

"Now Rhodes scholar has ever been chosen to represent the privilege of representing his college in athletic competition," Dr. Sanford said, "despite the fact that his scholarship frankly comes in part from his athletic ability."

"The English do not consider the Rhodes scholar an amateur of amateurism, then why should we?"

England has advanced—we have fallen behind. By this plan we put emphasis on scholastic attainment—the real purpose of the college."

"We have a rule that states that

"no loan or scholarship can be awarded to an amateur, wholly or in part, for athletic ability." That rule is out of date. We know it. It is largely responsible for the stupefaction that exists—and yet we do not seem to have the land to study and were accepted in that country as true amateurs.

"If we adopt the rule governing the selection of Rhodes scholars as an amateur, a new day will dawn in college relations.

Hypocrisy will disappear. The present rule or definition so far as it relates to an amateur is out of date—it has been supplanted by the rule governing the selection of Rhodes scholars."

"Now Rhodes scholar has ever been chosen to represent the privilege of representing his college in athletic competition," Dr. Sanford said, "despite the fact that his scholarship frankly comes in part from his athletic ability."

"The English do not consider the Rhodes scholar an amateur of amateurism, then why should we

FILIPINO OPPOSES LIBERTY MEASURE

Boycott of U. S. Goods Will Follow If Hoover Signs Bill, Sotto Warns.

MANILA, Dec. 30.—(P)—Declaration that a boycott of American goods would follow if he signed the Philippine independence bill was cabled to President Hoover today by Vincent Sotto, chairman of the extremist Philippine Civic Union.

"It is useless and dangerous to sign the Philippine bill," asserted the cablegram. "Mass meetings in Manila and the provinces have repudiated it."

"It will provoke an immediate anti-American riot. The Philippine mission (Independence Workers in Washington) are betraying Americans and Filipinos."

Sotto said both Manuel Quezon, president of the Philippine senate, and General Emilio Aquino, Filipino patriot, were opposed to the independence bill passed yesterday by the house in Washington and sent to President Hoover for signature.

Quezon, long an active worker for independence, told a legislative meeting last night the bill, which would grant island freedom in ten years, was "the work of the National City bank."

Referring to the provision in the measure limiting tariff-exempt exports of Philippine sugar during the ten-year period to 50,000 tons of refined and 800,000 tons of raw sugar,

FARM BILL PASSED, DEFICIENCY READY

House Uses Pruning Knife on Measures and Sets Speed Record.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—(P)—What really looked and acted like a penny-pinching house today sent the farm and appropriation measure to the senate and made ready to act on the fourth.

The agriculture supply bill, after days of wrangling over amendments involving only a few dollars, finally was passed, carrying $100,000,000. Permanent appropriations of $10,000,000 were made by law without congressional action. Last year, for the same department there was appropriated $306,671,665. Most of the difference was in highway funds, which were slashed from $222,000,000 approved last session on the $35,000,000 allotted today.

While the last amendments on the new agriculture measure were being debated, the house appropriations committee presented for consideration another drastically cut bill, the second deficiency, providing $31,421,000 for expenditures unforeseen when the regular supply measures were approved last session. Even this was $12,285,000 less than the budget because it asked the biggest reduction in the $10,000,000 requested for tax refunds.

The committee said that $40,000,000 was "excessive" and recommended only $28,000,000.

So far, the house has set something of a record. It has passed three appropriation bills and received four which provide $1,156,000,000 for running expenses of the government. At the same stage last session, the bills called for outlays totaling $1,654,000,000.

Only $56,000,000 of this reduction, however, has been achieved by the house. The remainder was recommended by the budget bureau and largely took into account non-recurring expenditures, such as the millions approved last session for public buildings.

The principal items in the first deficiency bill presented to the house today were: $36,000,000 to the beneficiaries of decommissioned members, $625,000 for emergency relief in District of Columbia, $1,000,000 for fighting national forest fires, $17,983 for a hospital for defective dependents at Springfield, Mo.; the $28,000,000 for tax refunds, and $1,212,000-for settlement of claims.

Two Found Murdered In Parked Automobile

MONROE, Mich., Dec. 30.—(P)—Two men, identified tentatively by Toledo police as Sam Kaplan and a man known to them as "Speedy" Lampert, of Toledo, were found dead today from gun shot, and strangled with rope and wire. The bodies were found in the rear seat of an automobile near the Monroe steel plant.

Possible retaliation by a rival liquor gang was ascribed by the police as the reason for the slaying as they began an investigation.

Both men, the police said, had been shot in the head, apparently at close range. The authorities said they were found in the rear seat of a car, probably in Toledo and brought to the lonely spot near the plant of the Monroe Steel Company, over the state line in Michigan.

Newspaper clippings in Roberts' pockets contained references to a recent Toledo bombing and kidnapping case and could be officials said, his address of malt products firms as well as telephone numbers.

DO HEADACHES DRIVE YOU CRAZY?

It's the worst kind of folly to dope and drug yourself every time you have one of those blinding, throbbing headaches. For drugs only relieve the pain for the moment, and in a little while the headache returns worse than ever and you have to drug yourself all over again. You've got to get at the cause.

Poisons created in your own body cause these severe headaches, and you must remove the poisons to get relief of a lasting nature.

By starting the new harmless Cream of Nujol treatment, today, you may free yourself from this constant torment.

This new form of Nujol is specially designed to rid you of poisons which very often cause this condition.

Cream of Nujol contains no drugs, and does not in any way interfere with work or play. It is delicious to take. Moreover, you can use this modern treatment at a cost of but a few cents a day.

Take Cream of Nujol night and morning. Begin this very night and give it a real trial. Buy it at any drug counter.

Scene in West Point as Chattahoochee Sweeps Down College St.

College street in West Point, Ga., looking west from the river bridge. The main line of the A. & W. P. railroad, crossing the street just to the rear of the wagon, is completely under water, and the

GEORGIA OPPOSES COTTON CUT PLAN

Arkansas Vote Also Brings Probability of Second Crop Conference.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 30.—(P)—The cotton states want to reduce their crop to boost prices, but are still disagreed over how it should be done in spite of endorsement of a compulsory 50 per cent curtailment plan at a southwide conference here.

Cotton states governors and governors' representatives studying the production problem voted for the production cut on Friday. The components described the plan as "something definite" to help condition, but it drew vigorous opposition. Delegations from Georgia and Arkansas attacked it as unsatisfactory and made counter proposals.

As a result of failure of unanimous agreement on a cotton market stabilization plan, a second crop conference on the subject appeared today.

Governor Sonnen Conner, of Mississippi, a leading figure at the conference here, promised to present the tentatively endorsed 50 per cent plan to other governors with a view to instituting concerted action and said that failing to get their approval he would call a second conference in a second effort to reach accord.

The conference yesterday voted also to recommend to federal authorities that owners of occupied farms be granted loans large enough to pay taxes for at least two years and that a two-year moratorium on mortgage foreclosures be declared.

For December likewise runs to excess, at the rate of more than 2 degrees a day.

Mr. Mindling Friday centered his gaze on a storm over northern Louisiana, with a barometer reading of 29.56 at Shreveport. Rain of 1.50 to 2.00 inches has persisted since Thursday morning over northeastern Texas to southern Indiana. Local rains were light, Atlanta reporting 11 of an inch since Thursday morning, Chattanooga .08 of an inch and Birmingham .06 of an inch.

Chattahoochee to Fall.

"It appears that the storm to the west will produce the most rain along the course between Texas and the Ohio valley," Mr. Mindling said. "Our rivers do not seem to be in very bad shape, but the water is at very high stages, although West Point is at 21.9 feet for the Chattahoochee Friday. The Chattahoochee at Atlanta probably will go down rapidly unless we receive rains of consequence."

"The Chattahoochee at the Atlanta water works fell half a foot from Thursday morning to noon. The water is now at 21.9 feet above low water. The water is flowing slowly below West Point as the flood waters pass and the crest probably will require about five days to reach the middle of the Apalachicola," Mr. Mindling said.

West Point, confident that the river would confine itself to the 22-foot stage predicted by Mr. Mindling, enlarged its dam Saturday morning. Friday, with boats passed into river to ferry persons over wet spots. The river at West Point was said to have stopped rising at 21.9 feet, and in outlying districts it fell an inch or more. Traffic through West Point was not impeded.

West Pointer Makes Statement.

F. A. Norman, secretary of the West Point Chamber of Commerce, Friday wired The Constitution to relieve apprehension in the minds of West Pointers living in other places.

"While fully appreciating the interest manifested and offers of assistance tendered in connection with flood damage to the Chattahoochee river here, citizens of West Point are at no imminent danger to their lives or property of the people of this little city."

"The publication of certain photographs of inundated areas in the extreme lowland along the banks of the river in West Point has caused some apprehension to get abroad that flood waters here are doing considerable damage to property, even forcing people from their homes."

"We desire to correct this impression, for it is erroneous. While members of some three or four families have temporarily left their residences in the lower parts of the city and not one dollar's worth of damage has been done by the flood waters to any property here though of course surrounding grounds will be the worse for the slight flooding."

"All manufacturing plants, large and small, have continued uninterrupted operations."

"This statement is issued for publication in the daily press to relieve apprehension in the minds of West Pointers living in other places, and those who are greatly troubled seem to remember the former troubles."

"The river here is slightly under the 22-foot stage, or nearly eight feet lower than the memorable flood of 1919. This city can stand an additional rise of two or three feet without serious damage, and it seems now that the crest has passed, though perhaps not being now an apparent rise recorded."

"We wish again to thank our friends in other sections who have been so solicitous of our welfare. This statement is authorized through F. A. Norman, secretary of the West Point Chamber of Commerce."

Mr. Mindling, secretary of the Atlanta Motor Club, Friday said that the main roads which had been interfered with by water, are now open, but that the unimproved roads which suffered from the high water are still in poor condition.

"Beware the Blonde!"

A New Year's romance of two against the stars, defying the astrologer's double warning, written by Arthur Mason and illustrated in colors by R. F. James, is the front page of tomorrow's

Constitution Magazine

Why Today Is New Year's

The average person looks upon New Year's day as something inevitably fixed by the very nature of things. Tomorrow, however, will be New Year's day only to those nations using the Gregorian calendar. To millions of people, it will be just another day. Spencer Cullom explains why.

Arthur Barry's Own Story of His Life

The arch thief of this decade, considered by police America's most dangerous criminal, tells for the first time the story of his life and reckless career—jewel robberies and prison breaks.

"Where There Ain't No Ten Commandments"

Rosita Forbes, world traveler and explorer, tells the story of the British soldier who was hanged for a crime he didn't commit—a romance of the Indian plain; the seamstress who let her lover go to his death for her own protection, in tomorrow's

Constitution Magazine

The Gravure Pictorial Magazine

Carries a very unique calendar, with the leading characteristic of each month illustrated by attractive Atlanta children, pupils of a local dancing school.

Newly Elected Members of the Atlanta Junior League

Unique Costumes Featured at Recent Club Masquerade

A Georgia Couple Who Celebrated 60th Wedding Anniversary

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE and SANDY take the worst along with the best. Read their New Year's philosophy in tomorrow's

8-PAGE

COLOR COMIC SECTION

of

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

WE PAY 4% ON SAVINGS

BUEHLER BROS.
135-137 W. Alabama St. WA 2485-2484
Across the Street From Rich's

Hog Jowls
5c Lb.

Peas
3c Lb.

Pure Pork SAUSAGE
6c Lb.

EMPIRE TRUST COMPANY
Organized 1912
54 Broad St., N. W.
Designated State Depository
Hours 9 to 5 Saturdays 9 to 3

MATTHEWS MARKET		BROAD ST.
PORK CHOPS	7 1/2c	FRESH DRESSED HENS
STREAKED BACON	43 4/4c	HOG JOWLS

6,958 PATIENTS AIDED BY TUBERCULOSIS BODY

State Association Will End
1932 Without Deficit, Committee Reports Show.

The Georgia Tuberculosis Association will close the year without a deficit, establishing a 10-year record, it was reported Friday at the final meeting of the executive committee at the Winecoff hotel. Dr. C. C. Aven, president of the association, presided.

Georgia mortality rate for 1932, just compiled, stands in comparatively low figure, 72.9 for each 100,000 population, which, however, is high compared with the entire nation, which registers 67. It was brought out.

Many other states showed a much higher average, it was reported.

Activities of the organization for the year showed that 6,958 patients were contacted and aided during the year, as a supplement to the work of the state sanitarium and the state board of health. The annual meeting of the organization will be held in the spring, the date to be decided later when a joint session will be held with the Raoul Foundation in commemoration of the twentieth anniversary of the foundation.

Members of the executive committee are: Dr. Aven, Dr. T. F. Abercrombie, secretary state board of health; Dr. M. F. Haygood, superintendent state sanatorium; Mrs. F. G. Hodgeson, president of the Raoul Foundation; Miss Irene M. Gibbs, member of the Georgia legislature; Mrs. L. M. Hupp, Mayor, and T. C. Glenn, treasurer of the W. G. Raoul Foundation. The executive office of the association was represented by J. P. Faulkner, executive secretary, and Mrs. L. L. Young, office secretary.

Charlotte Gibson's Baby Twelve Days Old, Dies

TAPPAN, N. Y., Dec. 30.—(AP)—Mary Joan, the 12-day-old daughter of Charlotte Gibson, died today at the home of the mother's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gibson.

Mr. Gibson confirmed the announcement of the infant's death.

The baby was born within a week after Shirley Homewood, riding master, was convicted of seducing Miss Gibson. He is in jail pending an appeal.

A. WATSON WARNER, 73, PASSES AT HOME HERE

A. Watson Warner, 73, a retired patternmaker and well known in fraternal circles, died Friday morning at his residence at 921 Piedmont, No. 8. Services are to be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Peachtree chapel of Brandon, Bond & Condon, the Rev. S. P. Ogleby officiating. Burial will be in West View cemetery.

Mr. Warner was a member of Central Lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F.; the Central Park Temple Redmen, and the Central Presbyterian church. Members of the Redmen will have charge of the services at the graveside. Surviving are a son, Hugh A. Warner, of Atlanta, and two daughters, Mrs. H. D. Brown, of Atlanta, and Mrs. Sam P. Fleming, of Gainesville, Fla.

MATE DIES, WIFE HELD ON NARCOTIC CHARGE

Leon C. Tolbert, 40, of 163 Dodd Avenue, whose wife was arrested Christmas day while attempting to administer morphine in his arm at Grady hospital, died Friday morning at the hospital. Mrs. Tolbert was ordered held for the federal grand jury under $200 bond by United States Commissioner Griffith several days ago.

Patrolman J. J. Spratlin, on duty at the hospital, said he arrested Mrs. Tolbert after a man told him his wife was trying to give him to her husband, who was a patient in the man's ward there. The officer found the wife preparing a hypodermic needle, he said. It was not known what difference Tolbert's death would make in the federal narcotic charges against him.

The body of Mr. Tolbert was taken Friday night to Madison, Ga., his former home, for funeral services and interment. Besides his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Miss Louise Tolbert; a sister, Mrs. Louise Nall; and brothers, J. H. Tolbert, of Madison, and C. F. Tolbert, of Birmingham, Ala.

NEGRO MAN IS KILLED IN ELEVATOR ACCIDENT

His head crushed when caught between an elevator and the ceiling of the first floor of the Hoffman Printing Machine Company, Will Seal, negro employee of the Central Truck Lines, was instantly killed Friday morning. Witnesses said the negro was sitting on the edge of the elevator when it began to move up, only. Despite efforts for him to jump, Seal remained in the doorway of the lift until his head was smashed by the beam across the edge of the elevator shaft. Officials said the elevator had been out of order all day and a mechanic had been summoned to repair it.

REV. HALE TO BEGIN NEW SERMON SERIES

The Rev. H. C. Hale, minister of the West End Church of Christ, Sunday will begin a series of sermons for young people. Mr. Hale will speak on the morning of the subject, "Keeping Our Vows," and Sunday night on "Some New Things for the New Year." The series of sermons for young people will extend through January. Services will be held at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Special emphasis will be placed on problems confronting the modern young man and woman.

MAN RESISTS BANDITS, IS SERIOUSLY SLASHED

C. L. Freeman, 27, of 553 Zachary street, S. W., was reported recovering at Grady hospital Saturday after being injured when he was slashed in a fight with three highwaymen while walking along Park street early Friday morning. He told police that three negroes stopped him and were searching his pockets when he decided to fight. One person was set upon him with a razor.

Weak from loss of blood, from slashes on legs and back, he fell in the street and was found by a taxi cab driver who rushed him to Grady.

CUTS COSTS OF COLDS

In extensive clinical tests, the new Vicks Plan for better Control of Colds cut the number, duration and costs of colds in half! How you can follow Vicks Colds-Control Plan is fully explained in each Vicks package.

Woodmen Inspect City Today As Possible Convention Site

E. J. Bullard, of Detroit, Mich., and W. W. Gordon, of Kansas City, Mo., prominent directors of the Modern Woodmen of the World, will arrive in Atlanta early this morning to consider the facilities this city has for handling the next quadrennial convention of the organization, scheduled for June, 1933. The convention would bring from 1,500 to 2,000 visitors to the city.

Mr. Bullard and Mr. Gordon, who are inspecting the city for the convention, will be entertained here by the Atlanta Convention and Tourist Bureau and will stop at the Piedmont hotel. Prominent Georgians will attend a luncheon to be given the directors at 12:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Henry Grady hotel.

Portions of the city will be shown to the visitors during the day.

James W. Smith, state manager of the Modern Woodmen of the World, with headquarters in Atlanta, said he had notified Georgia camps of the visit of Mr. Bullard and Mr. Gordon, and expected many delegates here to attend. He said Atlanta had a good chance to obtain the national convention, as only one other city is being considered.

RECEIVER IS APPOINTED FOR NUGRAPE COMPANY

NoGrape Company of America was placed in involuntary bankruptcy by three creditors Friday and a receiver was appointed by action filed in federal district court.

The company, a Delaware corporation, with headquarters in Georgia, was named in an involuntary petition filed by the Er. Grappling Company, of Erie, Pa., which alleges debts of $322, of the Harve Massengale Company, of Atlanta, which alleges $1,863,29 owned, and James Morrison, who alleges debts of $2,095.80. The total alleged indebtedness is $4,201.18.

The petition, filed by the law firm of Dillon, Calhoun & Dillon, alleges that the company has a manufacturing plant, equipment and stock in subsidiary companies to the value of $700,000. The buildings are located in Alabama, Texas, south Georgia, Virginia, West Virginia, Mississippi, New York, Maryland and Ohio, the petition sets out.

A receiver was asked for, and A. A. Baumstark appointed under a bond of $3,000.

According to Walter S. Dillon, one of the attorneys who represent the creditors, the NutGrape company's home office is in Atlanta. Further proceedings will be taken through ancillary action in all districts where subsidiaries are located, to protect the stockholders, he said.

CURTIS' OFFER TO DIE FOR WOMAN DERIDED

The fantastic offer of Howard Curtis, Georgia life-terminer, to die in the electric chair for Mrs. Beatrice Ferguson Snipes, expectant mother under death sentence in South Carolina for murder of a rural policeman, Friday was termed "mighty kind" by Mrs. Snipes, but proved futile when Governor Ira C. Blackwood said that "little consideration will be given the offer."

Howard Blackwood said that Curtis' proposition was "obviously impossible." Still, the governor commented, "he ought to be allowed to die for her, if he is that crazy. I believe that it is just a gesture."

Dr. Herman L. Turner, the pastor, will be in court. An unusual procedure appropriate to the welcoming of the New Year has been prepared by Dr. Turner with the assistance of Mrs. W. A. DeLemar, organist and choir director. All residents in the neighborhood of Covenant church, regardless of church affiliations, are cordially invited to attend.

WATCH-NIGHT SERVICE PLANNED BY CHURCH

A unique "watch night" service will be held by the Covenant Presbyterian church tonight at 11:30 o'clock at the church, Peachtree road and Terrace drive.

Dr. Herman L. Turner, the pastor, will be in court. An unusual procedure appropriate to the welcoming of the New Year has been prepared by Dr. Turner with the assistance of Mrs. W. A. DeLemar, organist and choir director. All residents in the neighborhood of Covenant church, regardless of church affiliations, are cordially invited to attend.

ATLANTAN INJURED, HITCHHIKER KILLED
AS AUTO CRASHES

R. T. Dance, of 162 Luckie street, en route home from Milledgeville in an automobile late Friday, picked up a hitch-hiker a mile south of Barnesville. He drove through the town and a mile north of it lost control of the machine and it ran into a tree. The hitch-hiker was killed. Dance, not seriously injured, continued to Atlanta in his car.

In the pockets of the dead man was a copy of a prescription written by Dr. W. A. Turner, of Newnan, Ga., on February 25, this year, for W. C. Beard, which had been filled at Walther's Pharmacy, Newnan.

During a conversation with Dance before the accident, the man said that he was a Georgian, but had traveled extensively over the west.

The dead man was about 35, weighed 135 pounds, and was of fair complexion. He had $34.90 in his pockets.

MASON RITES HELD;
MYSTERY UNSOLVED

How Charles Mason, 29, whose funeral was held Saturday in his mother's home in Lavoria, Ga., was fatally injured early Thursday morning remained a mystery Friday as city detectives continued a search for clues. Mason was found unconscious between the car tracks at Broad and Hunter streets with a skull fracture and two fractures, and died a few hours later at Grady hospital. Mabel Bradley, of a Boulevard address, is being held by police on suspicion. The woman was found in a semi-conscious condition on the sidewalk near by.

An inquest into Mason's death will be held this morning at 10 o'clock at the establishment of Brandon-Bond-Condon Co., Paul Donchon announced. The Paul woman told police she remembered nothing of what happened except that she and Mason had been to a house on the 100 block of Broad and Hunter streets the night before. Radio reporters said they saw the couple about 10 minutes before they were found. First theories that they were struck by a hit-and-run driver have been discarded, it was said, because no mud was found on their clothes.

RECEPTION HONORS DRUGGIST AT GRADY

With her petition for a pension already approved, Miss Theo Bowie, for 27 years druggist at Grady hospital, will retire the first of the year with a distinguished record. Said to be the first woman registered pharmacist in Georgia, she succeeded Dr. Frank Polk, druggist at Grady hospital, in 1905.

In honor of her long service a reception was held at the nurses' home Thursday night. In the receiving line were Superintendent J. B. Franklin, superintendent of nurses, and Eugene Herring, president of the board of trustees. Miss Bowie will be succeeded by Colvin Wilhite, new druggist in the negro ward at the hospital.

MISS MARTHA BULLOCH PASSES AT HOSPITAL

Warm Springs Teacher Was Widely Known in Atlanta.

Miss Martha Bulloch, for many years a well-known teacher at Warm Springs, Ga., died Friday afternoon at a private Atlanta hospital, where she had been under treatment for the last 10 days after undergoing an operation. She was 51 years old.

Miss Bulloch was the widow of the late Judge Cyrus Bulloch, founder of the town of Bullochville, and Mrs. Julia C. Bulloch, who survives her. She had taught in several Georgia cities, and for several years had been a resident of Warm Springs, where she was well known.

In addition to her mother, she is survived by her sister, Miss Minnie Bulloch, Mrs. Oscar Bulloch, Mrs. Henry R. Worth and Mrs. W. G. Harry, all of whom reside in Bullochville.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will officiate, and interment will be in the Warm Springs cemetery. Astry & Lowndes were in charge.

The body was taken Friday night to Warm Springs, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. H. O. Fowler, of Manchester, and the Rev. L. W. Wright will offic

THE CONSTITUTION

CLARK HOWELL
Editor and General Manager,
Clark Howell Jr., Business Manager.

Entered at the Postoffice at Atlanta, Georgia, as second-class mail matter.

Telephone WAL 6565.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

By Carrier or Mail
Daily and 1st of Month $3.00 6 Mo. 1 Yr.
Sunday 20c 90c 2.50 $5.00 $25.00
Daily only .16c 70c 2.00 4.00
Single Copy 10c 25c 50c 1.00
BY MAIL ONLY
Sunday .10c 50c 1.25 2.50
R. L. and 2nd class mail 10c 25c 50c
Daily (without Sunday) 1 year $1.50
Daily and Sunday, 1 year $1.50

KELLY-SMITH COMPANY, national representatives, New York, Chicago, Detroit, Boston, Philadelphia, Atlanta, Atlanta, Atlanta.

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York City, 25c, on the day after issue. It can be had at Hoteling's News Stand, Broadway, and Foy-Ledger, at 10c. In Atlanta, Georgia, at the News Agency, at Bryant Park and Grand Central Depot.

The Constitution is not responsible for advance payments to out-of-town local carriers, dealers or agents. Remittances given for publication of news items or for news with published rates are not authorized; and no one is responsible for subscription news items until received at office of publication.

Member of The Associated Press.

The Constitution is not responsible for news items or for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the news published herein.

ATLANTA, GA., DEC. 31, 1932.

TALMADGE'S "BIG BERTHA."

Governor-elect Eugene Talmadge, in a signed article in the current issue of the Southern Cultivator, makes this statement:

After I become governor and should be written up as a big man—and everything runs smooth, and quiet, you can bet your boots that I have sold out and forgotten you. But, if you see a heap of people cussing me, just get on your knees and pray that I will have the courage to stand to my guns.

Commenting on this, the Miller News, one of the most ably edited of the state's weekly newspapers, says:

We did not support Mr. Talmadge for governor in the recent election but when we read that article his stock went up, in our estimation, 50 per cent.

The News is right and the governor-elect merits its commendation.

Mr. Talmadge proposes to "stand by his guns!"

In doing this he will be criticized and all sorts of obstacles will be thrown in his way, but that he has the courage to carry out his campaign pledges, the foremost of which is that he will get the state out of debt, there can be no doubt.

This is his Big Bertha, the shots out of which, during the recent state campaign, are still reverberating.

This is the governor-elect's definite committal, and that he will advise the general assembly accordingly we have no doubt.

If as governor, he maintains his position in good faith, as we believe he will do, he will deserve the acclaim of the state, whether or not the legislature follows him.

If legislative obstacles are thrown in the way of his pledge to liquidate the state's indebtedness during the next two years, then the legislature, and not the governor, will be to blame.

But we believe the general assembly will "come clean."

There should be no halfway business about it.

The state should be freed absolutely of debt within the next two years—not halfway, not two-thirds—but wholly freed!

That is the pledge of the governor-elect, and, if he is the man we take him to be, he will stand by his Big Bertha to the limit.

He is circumvented by the lack of legislative co-operation, he will take his Big Bertha on another tour around the state two years from now, and make a "knock-down-and-drag-out" issue as between his position and those who stand in the way of its materialization.

That is Talmadge's way of doing things.

Beer at least provides a wonderful example in a land that has to live on hope.

Anyway England has shown up the old physics professor who said a pound of gold had no more weight than a pound of paper.

The gasoline gauge is the little hickey that points to "half full" when your motor wheezes and dies two miles from a station.

"The sticks" is a region where you can't get fresh eggs because they are sent to storage centers to supply the shortage in the sticks next year.

But when doctors are paid by the state, will they be willing to get out of bed at 2 a. m. to tell you it's nothing serious?

THE ARMAMENTS FOLLY.

In his message to congress on the interlocking problems of war debts, disarmament and world economic affairs, President Hoover points out that "the stupendous increase in military expenditures since before the war is a large factor in world-wide unbalanced budgets, with that consequent contribution to unstable credit and currencies and to the loss of world confidence in political stability."

The major nations of the world are now spending vastly more—some of them two or three times as much—for armaments of various kinds than they did in 1913. In the two decades since that year Great Britain's annual bill for war preparedness has jumped from $375,000,000 to $53,000,000; France's from $348,000,000 to $45,000,000; Russia's from $447,000,000 to $57,000,000 and that of the United States from the $24,000,000 spent in 1913 to more than $700,000,000 this year.

It is no wonder that such huge increases in the sums being spent for armaments have brought about unsettled conditions in both government and business.

No country has been a worse offender in increased appropriations for its army and navy than France—and its policy has been largely responsible for the increase in other countries. Italy has had to keep step in order that command of the Mediterranean might not be definitely lodged with France, Great Britain has followed suit and the United States, not to be outdone, has added more than $400,000,000 to its armaments bill.

France is still working thousands of men on the gigantic line of fortifications she is building on the German border. They consist of a labyrinthine network of subterranean passages, long tunnels, redoubts, barracks, hospitals, electric and water-power stations.

On the Italian front the French are erecting a similar supposedly impregnable line of defenses, but all above ground.

The costs of these frontier defenses run into billions of dollars, and have required the efforts over a period of years of the best engineering and technical brains of France and the labor of tens of thousands of workmen.

Had these billions—and those spent by other nations in keeping pace with France—been diverted into the channels of commerce the depression would have been of short duration, if not entirely averted.

All humanity would have been benefited if only a fraction of these staggering sums had been spent for constructive instead of destructive purposes.

Indicative of the folly of these huge expenditures by military-minded chancelleries is the fact that there is unanimous agreement that the next great war, if one should ever come, will be fought largely in the air, miles above the ramparts, sub-surface fortifications and navies, for the construction of which the world has been thrown into economic turmoil.

Already, it is reported, France has developed radio-controlled airships which can deposit gases or explosives, will in the twinkling of an eye, will wipe out entire cities, or snuff out life in large areas.

If for no other reason, the very frightfulness of the next war should cause the civilized peoples of the world to put an end now to the staggering expenditures they are being called upon to make in preparation for it.

Enemies have their good points. Only friends borrow things you hate to lend.

If they would beat their swords into plowshares, they wouldn't have to beat their debts.

Another argument against birth control is that each arrival will in time be a new source of revenue.

Last reports show that the change in football rules didn't lessen the number of pints killed this year.

Education must pay. Nobody but an educator can pacify a boarding house lady when he isn't getting any pay.

Things even up. Chicago has paid tribute to bandits, but they are the only people who can get by without paying taxes.

Whether 2.75 beer is intoxicating depends on whether you are experimenting with a college boy or a congressman.

Old Dobbin had his faults, but you didn't have to tow him around the block to get him started on a cold morning.

The gasoline gauge is the little hickey that points to "half full" when your motor wheezes and dies two miles from a station.

"The sticks" is a region where you can't get fresh eggs because they are sent to storage centers to supply the shortage in the sticks next year.

THE WORLD'S WINDOW

BY PIERRE VAN PAASSEN.

Church and Crisis.

What is the cause of the decline of the influence of the various churches? In every country we see the same phenomenon. Anti-religious sentiment grows, indifference is widespread. In several countries the governments are openly anti-clerical and anti-religious. This is the case in France, in Spain, in the Soviet Union and also, apparently, in Mexico.

It is all very well to say that anti-religious sentiment is due to propaganda, and no doubt some of it is due to that. But this is not the whole answer. Anti-religious propaganda could never make the headway it does if religious sentiment were as deeply rooted as it is often claimed to be by clerical apologists. The reasons therefore must be sought in another direction. A conscientious man will not accept at once the mass of anti-religious sentiment as due to the attitude of the churches to modern problems. Or rather the lack of any attitude whatsoever.

First of all, there is disarmament. Now at last there has come a little light on this subject which ought to have been considered in the first place. The class of bodies which call themselves the army of the Prince of Peace. At last there is a little awakening, but by far not enough. One suspects the weapons of war would again be blessed by Christian leaders if there were a new conflict. And the there is the world crisis, of course. Here we see most clearly that the church has also neglected her social calling, by acting as if wages and slums and unemployment did not concern her in the least. This neglect has caused a general apathy among the working classes that the church is a one-class institution.

Too often the church sides with reaction. Now somebody will say these words are anti-religious propaganda. They are not. For I, and millions of the younger generation in every country, would have things otherwise and would get the church to take part in every phase of life and lead us forward.

Spain.

The Spanish government has once more invited the Sephardic Jews to return to Spain. Four hundred years ago, in the days of the Inquisition, some were persecuted and some were converted. Some were expelled and went to the Balkans and to Holland. They were the Sephardic Jews. The Jews have been persecuted ever since they arose up a new king over Egypt which knew not Joseph. But all the persecutors of Israel have failed.

The Jew is slaughtered—but survives. He is expelled—but survives. Will the rest of mankind learn the lesson? And why doesn't some one write a book to explain why? Jew is always the symbol of persecution, even in modern Germany today? There is an explanation, a good and valid one, which has nothing to do with racial antagonism or jealousy or any of the usual explanations. Yet it is never mentioned.

Georgia Heroes Of the World War

By Sergeant L. E. Jaekel
(All Rights Reserved.)

GEORGE HAMPTON YARBOROUGH JR., first lieutenant, fifth regiment, United States marine corps, second division, American Expeditionary Force, was awarded the Croix de Guerre of France for heroic gallantry in action with the enemy June 23, 1918, in the Aisne-de-Belloy, France. Lieutenant Yarbrough displayed exceptional bravery when his platoon was in a support position under intense artillery fire, moving from one shellhole to another and steady his men. After making one trip over the line he was wounded by an exploding shell, but refused aid until he saw that the wounded soldier was unable to move and taken to shelter. He later died as the result of the wounds sustained during this exploit.

Residence at appointment, Atlanta, Ga. Posthumously awarded. Medal presented to George Hampton Yarbrough Sr.

Army Orders

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Army orders: Major Leroy D. Soper, medical corps, Captain John R. Devil, Infantry; Captain George C. Prentiss Jr., medical corps; Captain Lee Morgan, Army nurse corps; Major William E. McCormick, medical corps, assigned to Fort Benning; Captain Joseph H. Dornbair, cavalry corps, to Fort Riley.

Major William C. Loomis, engineers, re-

Captain Lucius L. Hopwood, medical corps; Captain John R. Devil, Infantry;

First Lieutenant John R. Devil, Infantry;

Second Lieutenant Mary M. Morgan, Army nurse corps; Major William E. McCormick, medical corps, assigned to Fort Benning; Captain Joseph H. Dornbair, cavalry corps, to Fort Riley.

Major William C. Loomis, engineers, re-

Captain Lucius L. Hopwood, medical corps; Captain John R. Devil, Infantry;

First Lieutenant John R. Devil, Infantry;

Second Lieutenant Mary M. Morgan, Army nurse corps; Major William E. McCormick, medical corps, assigned to Fort Benning; Captain Joseph H. Dornbair, cavalry corps, to Fort Riley.

Major William C. Loomis, engineers, re-

Captain Lucius L. Hopwood, medical corps; Captain John R. Devil, Infantry;

First Lieutenant John R. Devil, Infantry;

Second Lieutenant Mary M. Morgan, Army nurse corps; Major William E. McCormick, medical corps, assigned to Fort Benning; Captain Joseph H. Dornbair, cavalry corps, to Fort Riley.

Major William C. Loomis, engineers, re-

Captain Lucius L. Hopwood, medical corps; Captain John R. Devil, Infantry;

First Lieutenant John R. Devil, Infantry;

Second Lieutenant Mary M. Morgan, Army nurse corps; Major William E. McCormick, medical corps, assigned to Fort Benning; Captain Joseph H. Dornbair, cavalry corps, to Fort Riley.

Major William C. Loomis, engineers, re-

Captain Lucius L. Hopwood, medical corps; Captain John R. Devil, Infantry;

First Lieutenant John R. Devil, Infantry;

Second Lieutenant Mary M. Morgan, Army nurse corps; Major William E. McCormick, medical corps, assigned to Fort Benning; Captain Joseph H. Dornbair, cavalry corps, to Fort Riley.

Major William C. Loomis, engineers, re-

Captain Lucius L. Hopwood, medical corps; Captain John R. Devil, Infantry;

First Lieutenant John R. Devil, Infantry;

Second Lieutenant Mary M. Morgan, Army nurse corps; Major William E. McCormick, medical corps, assigned to Fort Benning; Captain Joseph H. Dornbair, cavalry corps, to Fort Riley.

Major William C. Loomis, engineers, re-

Captain Lucius L. Hopwood, medical corps; Captain John R. Devil, Infantry;

First Lieutenant John R. Devil, Infantry;

Second Lieutenant Mary M. Morgan, Army nurse corps; Major William E. McCormick, medical corps, assigned to Fort Benning; Captain Joseph H. Dornbair, cavalry corps, to Fort Riley.

Major William C. Loomis, engineers, re-

Captain Lucius L. Hopwood, medical corps; Captain John R. Devil, Infantry;

First Lieutenant John R. Devil, Infantry;

Second Lieutenant Mary M. Morgan, Army nurse corps; Major William E. McCormick, medical corps, assigned to Fort Benning; Captain Joseph H. Dornbair, cavalry corps, to Fort Riley.

Major William C. Loomis, engineers, re-

Captain Lucius L. Hopwood, medical corps; Captain John R. Devil, Infantry;

First Lieutenant John R. Devil, Infantry;

Second Lieutenant Mary M. Morgan, Army nurse corps; Major William E. McCormick, medical corps, assigned to Fort Benning; Captain Joseph H. Dornbair, cavalry corps, to Fort Riley.

Major William C. Loomis, engineers, re-

Captain Lucius L. Hopwood, medical corps; Captain John R. Devil, Infantry;

First Lieutenant John R. Devil, Infantry;

Second Lieutenant Mary M. Morgan, Army nurse corps; Major William E. McCormick, medical corps, assigned to Fort Benning; Captain Joseph H. Dornbair, cavalry corps, to Fort Riley.

Major William C. Loomis, engineers, re-

Captain Lucius L. Hopwood, medical corps; Captain John R. Devil, Infantry;

First Lieutenant John R. Devil, Infantry;

Second Lieutenant Mary M. Morgan, Army nurse corps; Major William E. McCormick, medical corps, assigned to Fort Benning; Captain Joseph H. Dornbair, cavalry corps, to Fort Riley.

Major William C. Loomis, engineers, re-

Captain Lucius L. Hopwood, medical corps; Captain John R. Devil, Infantry;

First Lieutenant John R. Devil, Infantry;

Second Lieutenant Mary M. Morgan, Army nurse corps; Major William E. McCormick, medical corps, assigned to Fort Benning; Captain Joseph H. Dornbair, cavalry corps, to Fort Riley.

<div data-bbox="294

PROMPT DEPOSITS BY COUNTY URGED

Grand Jury Asks That Officials Keep Cash Balanced With Books.

Recommendation that steps be taken to require county officials at all times to keep their office cash in balance with their books and that all receipts be deposited not later than the next business day, was contained in the presentments of the November term. Full amount which was discharged by Judge Edgar E. Pomeroy in superior court Friday.

The jury also commanded the superior court judges for passing an order placing the court trust funds in the hands of one officer. This was done by the first of Dec. 29, when George E. Hanes was named in charge of the funds formerly handled by J. W. Simmons, clerk of the court. The action came after a special audit showed that $2,295 had been checked out of the trust fund without court authority and replaced when auditors asked for cancelled checks and bank statements in the amount of $1,000.

The grand jury had this audit before it when the presentments were drawn. The audit showed further that funds had not always been deposited on the next banking day as required by the judges. This audit, and another of the cash funds in Simmons' office, which showed that employees whose books were balanced and held in the cash drawer, were considered by the jury and resulted in the recommendation that the cash and the books remain in balance and that all receipts be deposited not later than the next business day.

County Bill Praised. The county commissioners were commended for their efforts in reducing the expenses of the county and other county authorities and succeeding grand juries are asked in the presentments to co-operate with the commissioners in placing the county affairs on a "sound business basis."

Aside from the presentments, the Friday drafted a letter to George F. Longino, chairman of the finance committee, thanking him for appearing before the jury and devoting his time to showing it what the commission has done.

In reference to a former grand jury's presentments, in which the passage of a bill in the state legislature to amend the procedure in criminal cases so that defendants indicted jointly may be tried either jointly or separately at the discretion of the trial judge and to reduce the number of pre-emptory challenges, was recommended, the referee said, adding its recommendation for the passage of such a bill as a time-saver.

The jury said further in its presentments that they believe the laws should be so changed as to give judges the right to fix punishment of criminals instead of juries, as the jury has no means of knowing the defendant's past record.

Boyle Staff Commanded. Solicitor-General John A. Boyle and his staff were praised highly by the jury. The jury expressed its thanks for the work being done and for the "prompt and efficient manner" in which indictments were presented to the jury. The county and city police, and the sheriff's force were commended for their "untiring efforts" in bringing in criminals and the recovery of stolen goods.

The daily newspapers also were praised by the grand jury for "heartily cooperation in the destroying of evidence and similar acts which have been under grand jury investigation during the last two months. "We feel that the public interest to the public has reduced crime considerably," the presentments said.

In addition to returning a number of routine bills, the jury did file a letter to Judge and Mrs. John H. Humphreys, who were injured Christmas Eve in an automobile accident, expressing the sympathy of the grand jury and wishing them a speedy recovery and a happy New Year.

In receiving the presentments and discharging the jury, Judge Pomeroy thanked the members of the grand jury for the good of the community and praised their two months of effort. He said that each grand jury should take the presentments of the preceding one and continue where the other has left off.

Woman Is Executed For Murder of Son

PRETORIA, Union of South Africa, Dec. 30. (UPI)—Mrs. Daisy De Melker was executed this morning for the murder of her son, Cecil Rhodes Cowle, by poisoning, for which she was sentenced to death November 25.

The case attracted countrywide attention and the trial, lasting nearly six weeks, was one of the most sensational in South African criminal history.

On charges of poisoning two former husbands, she was found not guilty.

Mrs. De Melker, a frail, diminutive woman, was unshaken by the final ordeal and maintained her innocence to the end.

Mrs. De Melker, hanged by the chief executioner of the union, was the second woman hanged in Transvaal since the union was formed in 1910. Eight hundred sentences may have been carried out by the chief executioner.

"Prince" May Become Man Without Country

PARIS, Dec. 30. (UPI)—Harry Ferguson, who styles himself "Prince Michael Romano," may become a man without a country if he succeeds in getting the United States to accept him.

Immigration officials here contend Ferguson was deported from France where he claimed American citizenship. Ferguson, 31, himself decided to return to the United States when the deportation was decreed, and the deportation rests with Ellis Island, where he is in custody, according to French authorities.

It is understood all French vessels refuse to accept Ferguson as a return passenger unless it is proved that he arrived in the United States on a French ship. If Ferguson's statement that he arrived on the Europa is proved to be true, it is believed likely that the North German Lloyd line will be forced to accept him as a passenger.

Germany, however, is not under obligation to permit his landing and, according to French officials, it is possible that "Prince Mike" might become a perennial Atlantic traveler, never being permitted to land on either side.

VICKS COUGH DROP

Real Throat relief!
Medicated with ingredients of Vicks VapoRub

OVERCOMES BAD BREATH

Brown Derby in Evidence As Closes 59 Years

NEW YORK, Dec. 30. (AP)—Alfred E. Smith, the "Happy Warrior" of many campaigns, donned his famous brown derby today and it won't for a battle, not for a birthday.

Entering his office high above the sidewalk from which he rose to be four times governor of the Empire State and a democratic presidential candidate in 1928, he hung the rust colored "iron hat" on his desk and sat down at his desk to cast a reminiscent eye back over his 59 years.

"No, I can't pick out the high-lights," he said. "There are too many. I prefer to remember the whole period as one of service and labor."

FRENCH DEBT DEFAULT IS HIT IN LOAN DEBATE

PARIS, Dec. 30. (AP)—France's failure to pay the debt installment due the United States on December 15 was invoked on the floor of the senate today by General Edward Hirschauer as his reason for not voting for a proposal to lend Austria $10,000,000.

The grand jury had this audit before it when the presentments were drawn. The audit showed further that funds had not always been deposited on the next banking day as required by the judges. This audit, and another of the cash funds in Simon's office, which showed that employees whose books were balanced and held in the cash drawer, were considered by the jury and resulted in the recommendation that the cash and the books remain in balance and that all receipts be deposited not later than the next business day.

Commission Bill Praised. The county commissioners were commended for their efforts in reducing the expenses of the county and other county authorities and succeeding grand juries are asked in the presentments to co-operate with the commissioners in placing the county affairs on a "sound business basis."

Aside from the presentments, the Friday drafted a letter to George F. Longino, chairman of the finance committee, thanking him for appearing before the jury and devoting his time to showing it what the commission has done.

Health Body Reports Flu Begins Decline,

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30. (UPI)—The influenza epidemic which has ravaged certain sections of the United States for a month has reached its peak and probably will decline soon, the public health service announced today.

Assistant Surgeon General J. P. Leake said there probably would be continued outbreaks for a few weeks, but expressed the opinion the general situation was much improved.

DOCTOR REPORTS NEW DISCOVERY FOR HAY FEVER

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 30. (AP)—The influenza epidemic which has ravaged certain sections of the United States for a month has reached its peak and probably will decline soon, the public health service announced today.

Assistant Surgeon General J. P. Leake said there probably would be continued outbreaks for a few weeks, but expressed the opinion the general situation was much improved.

DOCTOR REPORTS NEW DISCOVERY FOR HAY FEVER

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 30. (AP)—The influenza epidemic which has ravaged certain sections of the United States for a month has reached its peak and probably will decline soon, the public health service announced today.

Assistant Surgeon General J. P. Leake said there probably would be continued outbreaks for a few weeks, but expressed the opinion the general situation was much improved.

DOCTOR REPORTS NEW DISCOVERY FOR HAY FEVER

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 30. (AP)—The influenza epidemic which has ravaged certain sections of the United States for a month has reached its peak and probably will decline soon, the public health service announced today.

Assistant Surgeon General J. P. Leake said there probably would be continued outbreaks for a few weeks, but expressed the opinion the general situation was much improved.

DOCTOR REPORTS NEW DISCOVERY FOR HAY FEVER

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 30. (AP)—The influenza epidemic which has ravaged certain sections of the United States for a month has reached its peak and probably will decline soon, the public health service announced today.

Assistant Surgeon General J. P. Leake said there probably would be continued outbreaks for a few weeks, but expressed the opinion the general situation was much improved.

DOCTOR REPORTS NEW DISCOVERY FOR HAY FEVER

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 30. (AP)—The influenza epidemic which has ravaged certain sections of the United States for a month has reached its peak and probably will decline soon, the public health service announced today.

Assistant Surgeon General J. P. Leake said there probably would be continued outbreaks for a few weeks, but expressed the opinion the general situation was much improved.

DOCTOR REPORTS NEW DISCOVERY FOR HAY FEVER

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 30. (AP)—The influenza epidemic which has ravaged certain sections of the United States for a month has reached its peak and probably will decline soon, the public health service announced today.

Assistant Surgeon General J. P. Leake said there probably would be continued outbreaks for a few weeks, but expressed the opinion the general situation was much improved.

DOCTOR REPORTS NEW DISCOVERY FOR HAY FEVER

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 30. (AP)—The influenza epidemic which has ravaged certain sections of the United States for a month has reached its peak and probably will decline soon, the public health service announced today.

Assistant Surgeon General J. P. Leake said there probably would be continued outbreaks for a few weeks, but expressed the opinion the general situation was much improved.

DOCTOR REPORTS NEW DISCOVERY FOR HAY FEVER

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 30. (AP)—The influenza epidemic which has ravaged certain sections of the United States for a month has reached its peak and probably will decline soon, the public health service announced today.

Assistant Surgeon General J. P. Leake said there probably would be continued outbreaks for a few weeks, but expressed the opinion the general situation was much improved.

DOCTOR REPORTS NEW DISCOVERY FOR HAY FEVER

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 30. (AP)—The influenza epidemic which has ravaged certain sections of the United States for a month has reached its peak and probably will decline soon, the public health service announced today.

Assistant Surgeon General J. P. Leake said there probably would be continued outbreaks for a few weeks, but expressed the opinion the general situation was much improved.

DOCTOR REPORTS NEW DISCOVERY FOR HAY FEVER

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 30. (AP)—The influenza epidemic which has ravaged certain sections of the United States for a month has reached its peak and probably will decline soon, the public health service announced today.

Assistant Surgeon General J. P. Leake said there probably would be continued outbreaks for a few weeks, but expressed the opinion the general situation was much improved.

DOCTOR REPORTS NEW DISCOVERY FOR HAY FEVER

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 30. (AP)—The influenza epidemic which has ravaged certain sections of the United States for a month has reached its peak and probably will decline soon, the public health service announced today.

Assistant Surgeon General J. P. Leake said there probably would be continued outbreaks for a few weeks, but expressed the opinion the general situation was much improved.

DOCTOR REPORTS NEW DISCOVERY FOR HAY FEVER

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 30. (AP)—The influenza epidemic which has ravaged certain sections of the United States for a month has reached its peak and probably will decline soon, the public health service announced today.

Assistant Surgeon General J. P. Leake said there probably would be continued outbreaks for a few weeks, but expressed the opinion the general situation was much improved.

DOCTOR REPORTS NEW DISCOVERY FOR HAY FEVER

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 30. (AP)—The influenza epidemic which has ravaged certain sections of the United States for a month has reached its peak and probably will decline soon, the public health service announced today.

Assistant Surgeon General J. P. Leake said there probably would be continued outbreaks for a few weeks, but expressed the opinion the general situation was much improved.

Store Closed Monday After New Year's Day---January 2nd---Buy Today!

HIGH'S---After-Christmas Sales

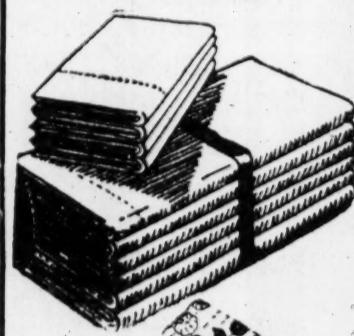

Crowds Always Go Where the Values Are--- Shop High's and See For Yourself!

Women Busily Buying—Saving NOW—In High's January

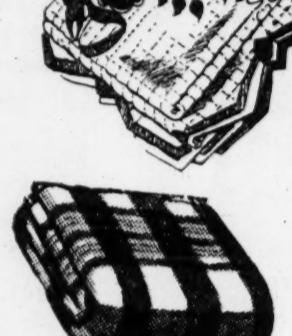

Sale! White Goods

98c to $1.49! Cannon-
Mohawk-Pepperell Sheets

74c
EA.

$1.49 Patchwork Quilts

Reg. $5.98! All-Wool
Double Blankets

Another reason why we say, "NOW—the lowest prices in our memory!" Huge block plaids, with matching sateen binding.

$3.98

44-lbs. virgin wool. Size 60x80.

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

3 Boxes
Modess

49c
EA.

Soft, highly absorbent!
NO C.O.D. or Mail Orders filled at this LOW price.

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Clearance!
Women's-Girls'
Ready-to-Wear
Original Ticket on Each Garment—Reduced to

WOMEN'S COATS--HALF

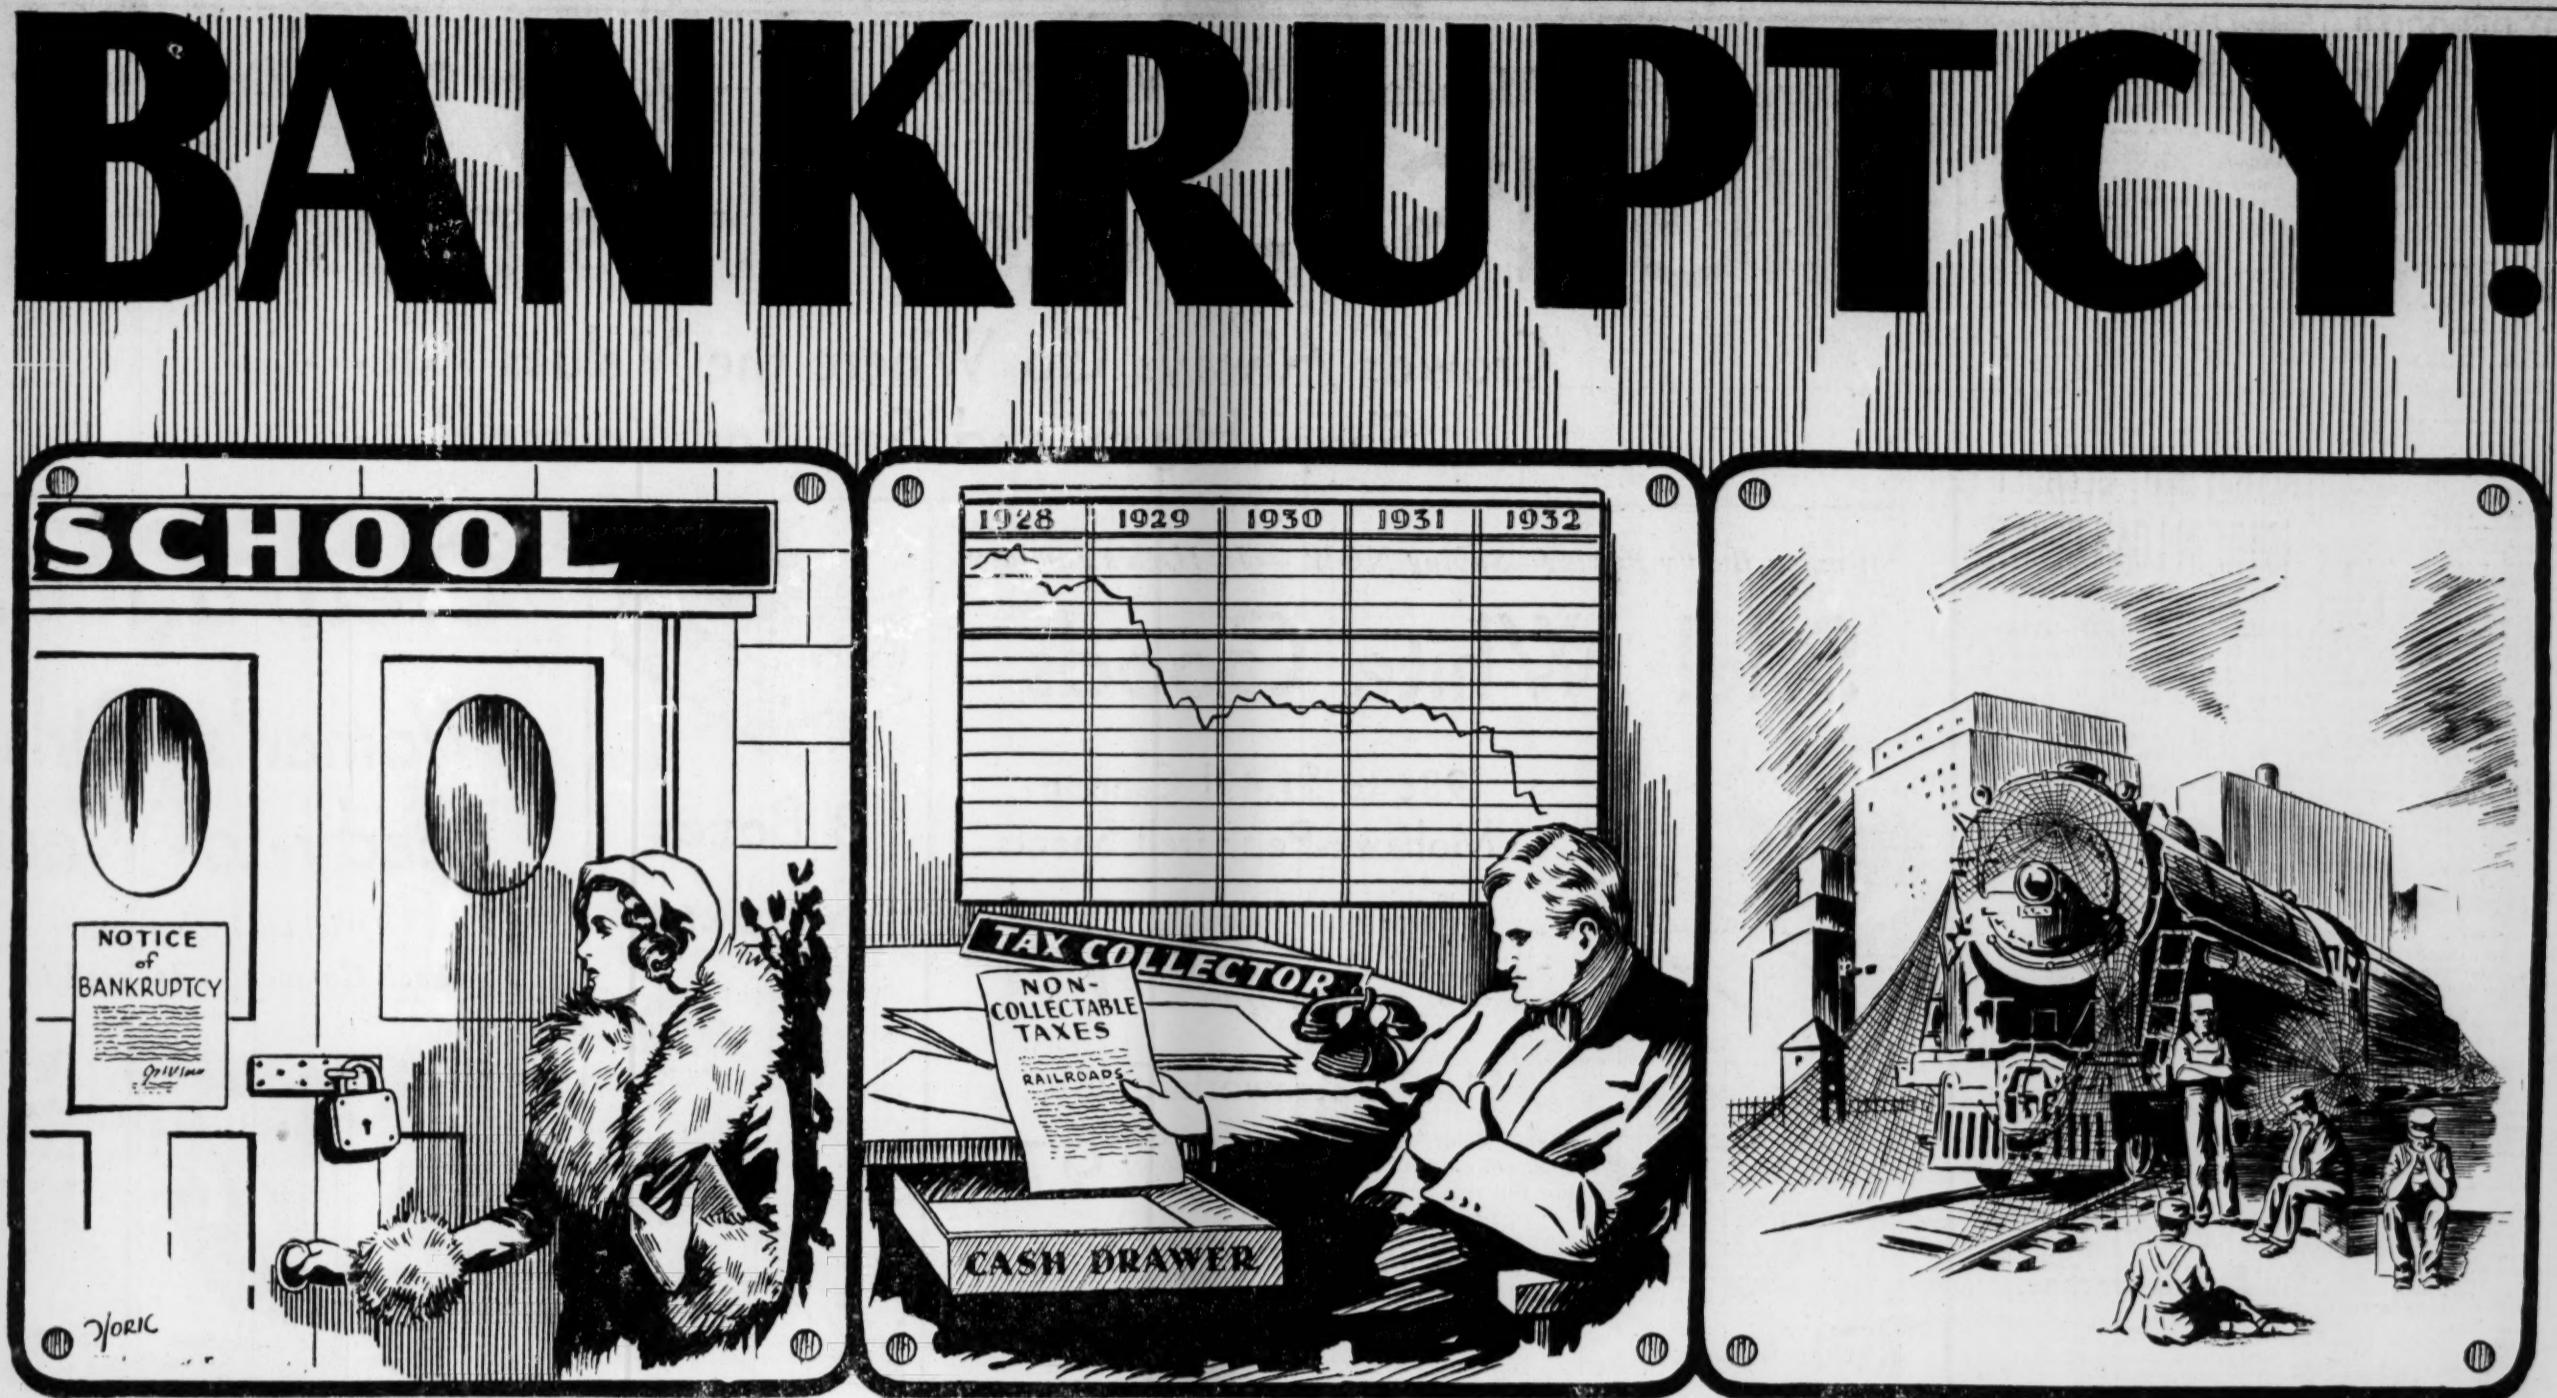

ALL Winter Coats—Misses'
and Women's Sizes

$25.00 COATS.....	NOW $12.50
$29.95 COATS.....	NOW $14.98
$38.00 COATS.....	NOW $19.00
$48.00 COATS.....	NOW $24.00
$58.00 COATS.....	NOW $29.00
$68.00 COATS.....	NOW $34.00
$78.00 COATS.....	NOW $39.00
$88.00 COATS.....	NOW $44.00

Women's FUR COATS--HALF

Smart, New Furs—Misses'
and Women's Sizes

$98.00 FUR COATS.....	NOW $49.00

Over Ten Thousand Georgia boys and girls forced out of school! Towns and counties BANKRUPT!

Not a very pretty picture, is it?

But it's the picture we've got to look at for a long time in the future if we don't get together and SAVE THE REVENUE that keeps our rural schools open and our counties and towns solvent.

Where does this revenue come from?

Well, 26% of the huge taxes paid by the Railroads in Georgia goes directly to support county-wide and local district schools. Using Federal statistics as the basis for yearly cost of teaching a child, this means that THE EDUCATION OF APPROXIMATELY TEN THOUSAND GEORGIA CHILDREN IS DIRECTLY DEPENDENT UPON RAILROAD TAXES!

But—that's not all!

Another large per cent of the Railroad tax indirectly finds its way to the support of small town schools in Georgia. Literally hundreds of our schools will, therefore, have to close their doors if the Railroads can no longer earn the money to pay their taxes.

IF THE RAILROADS CAN'T PAY, WHERE WILL THE MONEY COME FROM?

Out of the general treasury of the small towns and counties?

Listen!

Fully half the counties and practically all the small towns of Georgia will immediately become BANKRUPT if deprived of revenue from Railroad Taxes that now largely pay their current expenses. So, instead of making good a school deficit these counties and municipalities will be unable to even continue present operations IF WE BANKRUPT THE RAILROADS!

Think the loss of these Railroad Taxes will never come?

WHY—WE ARE ALREADY LOSING THEM! In 1931 the Railroad Tax paid in Georgia was considerably less than in 1930. AND FOR 1932 THEY WILL BE FROM 12% TO 15% LESS THAN IN 1931! Think that over.

These taxes are paid on the assessed value of the Railroad property in the State. Valuations can be determined only by earning power. We have taken away the earning power of the Railroads. So, the State Comptroller has been forced to lower assessments. He doesn't want to do it. The Railroads don't desire it. BUT WE HAVE FORCED IT! WE—THE SHIPPING AND TRAVELING PUBLIC—HAVE DECREASED OUR SCHOOL AND COUNTY REVENUE!

And we are doing more. WE ARE PLUNGING ONE RAILROAD AFTER ANOTHER INTO RECEIVERSHIP! Taxes uncertain. The next step is RAILROAD BANKRUPTCY—then, Government Operation—AND NO TAXES AT ALL!

THERE CAN BE BUT ONE RESULT FOR OUR RURAL SCHOOLS AND COUNTY DISTRICTS IF WE CONTINUE TO PADLOCK THE RAILROADS!

No matter what you may think of the Railroads as corporations. No matter what you like or don't like about this controversy—HOW CAN YOU FAIL TO PATRONIZE THE RAILROADS WHEN BY SO DOING YOU DEPRIVE GEORGIA BOYS AND GIRLS OF AN EDUCATION—WHEN IT MEANS BRINGING BANKRUPTCY TO OUR SMALL TOWNS AND COUNTIES?

IF ONLY FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN SUPPORT THE RAILROAD!

The co-operation of the following fair-minded, straight-thinking citizens is making this series of public appeals possible.

LEW ADLER
Gents' Furnishings
113 Peachtree St., N. E.

F. M. AKERS & SONS, MGRS.
The Prudential Insurance Co. of America

ALERTOX

J. M. ALEXANDER & CO.
Hardware
14-16 Forsyth St., N. W.

AMERICAN HAT MFG. CO.
160 Trinity Ave., S. W.

AMERICAN SECURITY CO.
207 Connally Bldg. MA. 1311

ARCADE RESTAURANT
110 Forsyth St., N. W.

ATLANTA ENVELOPE CO.
Manufacturers—Printers
505-511 Stewart Ave., S. W.

ATLANTA GAS LIGHT CO.

ATLANTA PLOW COMPANY
887 W. Marietta, HE. 5980

ATLANTIC STEEL COMPANY
Atlanta, Ga.

BANKERS SAVING & LOAN CO.
66 Pryor St., S. W.

W. S. BATEMAN & ROBT. MAGINNIS
Attorneys at Law
427 Trust Co. of Ga. Bldg.

W. R. BEAN & SON, PRINTERS
85½ Marietta St., WA. 0376

BLACK & WHITE CAB CO.
200 Ivy St., N. E. WA. 0200

BREWER'S PHARMACY
"Two Dependable Stores"
923 Stewart Ave., S. W.
1173 Lee St., S. W.

T. G. BROOKS & SON
Groceries—Meats
736 Jefferson St., N. W. HE. 6818

BROWER CANDY COMPANY
W. M. Wallace, Pres. & Treas.

CHAS. R. CAMPBELL, JEWELER
Inspector N. C. & St. L.
221 Marietta St., N. W.

CAPITAL ELECTRIC COMPANY
Majestic Radio
Majestic Refrigerator

CHEROKEE MEDICINE CO.
Old Indian L. & K. Tonic
82-84 Pryor St., S. W.

CITY INVESTMENT CO.
516-19 Cit. & Sou. Nat. Bk. Bldg.

THE S. A. CLAYTON CO.
Beauty Shoppe
113-15 Hunter St., S. W.

CLEVELAND ELECTRIC CO.
557 Marietta St., MA. 8164

SAM COHEN TAILORS
55 Forsyth St., N. W.

COMMUNITY FINANCE CO.
212-13 Grant Bldg.

R. W. COURTS JR.
Courts & Co., Hurt Bldg.

J. F. CREL, JEWELER
127 Peachtree Arcade

CRUMBLEY DISTRIBUTING SERVICE—ADVERTISING
121 Edgewood Ave., S. E.

CURTIS PRINTING CO., INC.
Railroad & Commercial Printers
62 Ellis Street, N. E.

THOS. H. DANIEL, GEN. AGT.
Union Central Life Ins. Co.

WALLACE W. DANIEL, GEN. AGT.
Provident Mutual Life Ins. Co.

DARBY PRINTING CO.
R. C. Darby

CHAS. R. CAMPBELL, JEWELER
Inspector N. C. & St. L.
221 Marietta St., N. W.

FAMILY FINANCE COMPANY
Majestic Radio
Majestic Refrigerator

DAVISON-PAXON CO.
Majestic Radio
Majestic Refrigerator

DIXIE CULVERT & METAL CO.

S. C. DOBBS, JR.
Dobbs & Co., Investment Brokers

DUFFEE-FREEMAN FURNITURE CO.
74 Broad Street, S. W.

E. E. M. COMPANY
Medicated Tobacco

FIRST MUTUAL BLDG. & LOAN ASSN.
23 Auburn Ave., N. E. WA. 7524

JOHN S. FLORENCE MOTOR CO.
230 Whitehall St., S. W. MA. 3285

FOX THEATRE
"South's Most Magnificent Theatre"
Exclusive Screen Presentations

GATE CITY COTTON MILLS

GEORGIA FIREWORKS CO.
234 Mitchell St., S. W.

GEORGIA LEAD COMPANY
Subsidiary National Lead Co.
Atlanta, Georgia

GEORGIA PLUMBING CO.
177 Pryor St., S. W.

GEORGIA POWER COMPANY

P. L. GOMEZ & COMPANY
Plastering Contractors

GRANT & COMPANY
Stocks—Bonds
Healey Bldg., MA. 2270

GRANT BUILDING

W. T. GRANT & COMPANY
82 Whitehall St., S. W.

WALTER A. GUEST—MEN'S WEAR
237 Mitchell St., S. W.

JAMES G. HALE & COMPANY
Pryor and Decatur Sts., WA. 0046

THE HARRISON COMPANY Law Book Publishers

WM. R. HARRISON JR., GEN. AGT.
Conn. Mutual Life Ins. Co.

HARTSFIELD COMPANY
Industrial Bankers

HEALEY BLDG., WILLIAM OLIVER
BLDG.

Owned and Operated by Healey Real Estate & Imp. Co.

HIRSCH BROTHERS, INC.
74 Whitehall St., S. W.

WALTER HOPKINS, RES. PARTNER
Livingston & Company

INGOT IRON RY. PRODUCTS CO.
Atlanta, Ga.

IMPERIAL BEDDING COMPANY, INC.
Mattress Manufacturers
442 Cain Street, N. E.

J. & A. DAIRIES
Dairy Products

JEFFERSON MORTGAGE CO., INC.
1203 Healey Bldg., WA. 0814

KENNY FURNITURE CO.
340 Peters St., S. W.

FRANK G. LAKE—LUMBER DEALER
100 Haynes Street, N. W.

LOEW'S GRAND THEATER
"Dixie's Newest Playhouse"

THEO. W. MARTIN—DRIED BEET
PULP

22 Marietta St. Bldg.

ED MATTHEWS & COMPANY
Furniture—86-88 Alabama St., S. W.

R. A. McCORD, RES. PARTNER
Fenner, Beane & Ungerleider

THE 22 MARIETTA ST. BLDG.

MEADOR-PASLEY COMPANY
J. Frank Meador, Pres.-Treas.

MEINERT COAL COMPANY
Gen. Offices, 243 Decatur St.

E. A. MORGAN, JEWELER
119 Hunter St., S. W.

THE MORRIS PLAN COMPANY OF GEORGIA

36 Pryor St., N. E.

GEORGE MUSE CLOTHING CO.
Peachtree, Walton and Broad Sts.

NATIONAL SEA FOOD CO.
31 Broad St., S. W., WA. 3985

NEWARK SHOE STORE
46 Marietta St.

J. K. ORR SHOE COMPANY
16 Yonge St., WA. 3800

PALMER PROPERTIES
Palmer Bldg.—Gleno Bldg.
101 Marietta St. Bldg.

PEDIGREE DAIRIES, INC.
165 Haynes St.

PEERLESS FURNITURE CO.
415 Marietta St., MA. 3151

NICK POOLOS COMPANY
217 W. Mitchell St., JA. 9096

PURITAN MILLS

Atlanta, Ga.
My-T-Pure Flour & Feeds

RHODES-WOOD FURNITURE CO.
137 Whitehall St., S. W.

RIALTO THEATER
"Where You Always See a Good Picture"

ROBINSON-HUMPHREY CO.

ROGERS FOOD STORES
Stores ALL Over Georgia

C. J. ROSS, MILK DAIRY
3020 Cascade Road, S. W.

SANDS & COMPANY, INC.

SAUL'S

91-93 Whitehall St., S. W., WA. 1858

SEABOARD SECURITY CO., INC.
311 William Oliver Bldg.
WA. 5771-2

THOS. F. SEITZINGER'S SONS
900 Ashby St., N. W. 4013

SHARP-ROYLSTON CO.
Rental—Real Estate—Sales

102 Luckie St., N. W.

SMITH HAMMOND & CO.
Atlanta, Ga.

SMITH SODA COMPANY
239 Mitchell St., S. W.
613 Spring St., N. W.

HARRY SOMMERS, INC.

446 Spring St., N. W., JA. 4770

SOUTHERN BELTING CO.
236-8 Forsyth St., S. W., WA. 7221

SOUTHERN PRINTING CO.
P. J. McCormick, Gen. Mgr.
371-373 Central Ave., S. W.

SOUTHERN TRANSFER CO., INC.
Office at All R. R. Depots
Main 3446

SOUTHERN WOOD PRESERVING CO.

SOUTHLAND LOAN & INVESTMENT
COMPANY

61 Poplar St., N. W., WA. 4289

STEIN PRINTING CO.
Railroad, State & Commercial Printers
57 Forsyth St., S. W.

STERCHI BROS. STORES
116-20 Whitehall St., S. W.

C. W. & EDGAR SULLIVAN
House Movers—DE. 1634
310 Murray Hill Ave., N. E.

S. & W. CAFETERIA
189 Peach

On the Radio Waves Today

Ansley Hotel WGST 890 Ke.

7:00 A. M.—Classical Musicals.
7:30—Strolling Down Pavements.
7:45—Rogers, Inc., CBS.
8:00—The Little CBS.
8:15—The Comedians, CBS.
8:30—Tony Wons, "Are You Listening?"
8:45—Christian Council of Atlanta.
8:50—Melody Parade, CBS.
8:55—New World Radio orchestra, CBS.
9:00—Performances of Hayes and Mary, CBS.
9:30—Concert Minstrels, CBS.
10:00—Buddy Harrell's orchestra, CBS.
11:30—Happy Felton's orchestra, CBS.
8:30—News, CBS.
8:45—Spanish Serenade, CBS.
8:50—The Balcony orchestra, CBS.
8:55—Dance of the Hour.
9:00—Sports, CBS.
9:30—Chorus from Leipzig, CBS.
10:15—River orchestra, CBS.
8:30—Big Ben, CBS.
8:01—Cox Prescription shop.
8:30—Capital Bingo.
8:45—Goodrich Silvertown with Chick Wilson.
7:00—News.
7:15—The Capitators, CBS.
7:30—Alexander Haas and His Budapest Orchestra, CBS.
8:15—Chesterfield program, CBS.
8:15—Edwin C. Hill, CBS.
8:45—Atlanta Constitution and Roy Robert.
9:00—New Year's Eve Dancing party, CBS.
8:00 A. M.—Sign off.

Biltmore Hotel WSB 740 Ke.

7:55 A. M.—Another Day.
7:50—News.
7:15—Piano Interlude.
7:30—Morning Chorus.
8:00—Morning Worship.
8:15—Pepper Pot, NBC.
8:30—Theatre, NBC.
8:45—Nothing But Truth, NBC.
9:00—The Van Family, NBC.
9:30—Mme. Lolita Cabrera, Gainsburg, NBC.
9:45—News.
10:00—Household Hints Exchange.
10:15—Household Institute, NBC.
10:30—Sweet Swanson, NBC.
11:00—Johnny Martin, NBC.
11:15—The Golden Hour, NBC.
12:30 P. M.—Metropolitan Opera, NBC.
5:30—Concert Favorites, NBC.
4:45—Studio program.
4:45—Piano Interlude, NBC.
5:30—Radio Show, NBC.
5:45—News.
5:55—Spanish Serenade.
6:15—The Pickens Sisters, NBC.
6:30—"Last Call for a Husband," NBC.
7:15—Walter Herbert.
7:30—Rhapsody Daily Hand.
7:45—School of the Palaces, NBC.
7:50—The Golden Hour, NBC.
8:00—Outstanding Hits of 1932, NBC.
8:00—Lucky Strike Hour, NBC.
10:00—New Year's Eve party, NBC.
10:55—New Year's Welcome, 1933, NBC.
7:15—The Capitators, CBS.
7:30—Alexander Haas and His Budapest Orchestra, CBS.
8:15—Chesterfield program, CBS.
8:15—Edwin C. Hill, CBS.
8:45—Atlanta Constitution and Roy Robert.
9:00—New Year's Eve Dancing party, CBS.
8:00 A. M.—Sign off.

Chicago WGN 720 Ke.

7:00 P. M.—Smith Bros., Trade & Mark.
7:15—The Magic of a Voice, CBS.
7:30—Seven League Boots.
8:00—Lawson Y. M. C. A. Glee Club.
8:15—The Old Favorites.
8:30—The Carbonberry band, CBS.
8:45—The Jimmie Davis Show.
9:00—New Year's Eve dance music.
9:15—Tales of Many Other Days.
9:30—The Dream Ship.
9:30—Rubya correct time.
10:30—Wayne King's orchestra.
10:30—Bernie Cummins' orchestra.
11:30—Wayne King's orchestra.
11:30—New Year's Eve dance music.

Cincinnati WLW 700 Ke.

5:00 P. M.—Saturday Night Frolic.
6:15—Gone and Glean.
6:30—George Olsen's orchestra, NBC.
6:45—R. F. D. with Ross Johnson.
7:00—The Rhythm, German band.
7:15—Tony Cacchio.
7:30—Los Amigos.
8:00—Spanish Rhythms.
8:30—The Spanish Follies, "Also carried by WGN, Cleveland; WCAE, Pittsburgh; WXYZ, Detroit; WCFL, Chicago."
9:00—Lucky Strike, NBC.
9:15—The Whole World's Talking.
9:30—Dinner with Sid Ten, NBC.
10:30—Larry Funk's dance orchestra.
11:00—Greystone Ballroom orchestra.
11:30—Greystone Beach hotel orchestra.
12:00—Larry Strike's orchestra.
12:00—Spanish Rhythms.
1:00—WLW Artist Bureau Jamboree.
2:00—Sign off.

Shrine WJTL 1370 Ke.

6:15 A. M.—Morning devotions.
7:00—Georgia theater organ hour.
7:30—Evelyn Lee, flower girl.
7:45—WJTL-Paramount Popularity Contest.
8:00—"The Whole World's Talking."
8:15—Spanish Rhythms.
8:30—Chinese concert, Margaret Storall.
8:45—Spanish Rhythms.
9:00—Spanish Civilisation.
10:00—Poetic Theory.
11:00—Poetic Theory.
12:00 P. M.—Merchandise on Parade.
1:00—Sunday school lesson.
1:45—WJTL-Paramount Popularity Contest.
2:00—"The Whole World's Talking."
2:15—Comparative Religions.
3:00—Government and Politics.
4:30—Twilight Rhythms.
5:00—Spanish Rhythms.
5:15—Dance music.
6:00—Dinner with Sid Ten.
6:15—Spanish Rhythms.
6:30—Merchandise on Parade.
7:00—To be announced.
7:45—WJTL-Paramount theater popularity contest.
8:00—Florence Arment, CBS.
8:30—Dance program.
8:45—Spanish Rhythms.
9:00—Oriental Club dance.
9:30—Spanish Rhythms.
10:00—Spanish Town Express.
12:00—Spanish Town Express hour.
1:00—Sign off.

CHECKS TAX REPEAL SOUGHT BY FULMER

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—(AP)—A bill to repeal the 2-cent tax on bank checks was introduced today by Representative Fulmer, democrat, of South Carolina. The levy was a part of the billion dollar tax bill passed this year.

Senator Will Ask Jury To Pass on Beer Power

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—(AP)—Believing the best way to determine whether 3.2 per cent beer is intoxicating is to drink some of it, Senator Dill, democrat, of Washington, will propose to the senate judiciary committee Monday that a quantity of such beer be made and tested by a "jury of tasters."

The judiciary committee already has a subcommittee studying whether 3.2 per cent beer would violate the constitution and Chairman Norris has called the full committee to meet Monday, after failing in two attempts to obtain a quorum to act on the bill passed by the house.

Alexander Haas and his Budapest Gypsy Ensemble, outstanding folk dance and gypsy melodies, will be heard tonight from 7:30 to 8 over WGST and the Columbia network. Gypsy melodies on the presentation will include "Katie at Mass," a fast cardigan; "Fine, Fine, How Good The Wine Is," and "In a Spanish Tent." Among the Hungarian folk tunes will be "Autumn Rose," "Lake Balaton Is Dangerous" and "Clarinet Song Is Over."

Vaccination Against Toothaches, Stars' Light, Purple Gold, Science

ATLANTA CITY, N. J., Dec. 30—(UPI)—Sidelights on civilization—past and present—were revealed in discussions of the Association for the Advancement of Science here today. Statements made included:

The Egyptian "purple gold" of ancient Egypt, found in King Tutankhamen's tomb, was produced by mixing the pure metal with iron and ornament, a sulphide of arsenic found in Egypt—Professor R. W. Wood of Johns Hopkins University.

Experiments with college students indicate punishment "infers with the operation of mental powers and is a handicap to scholastic attainment"—Dr. Milton B. Jensen, of Quonsetown, Kan.

Chronic alcoholism results from a brain disease and can be cured by a simple and harmless operation—Dr. Edward Spencer Cowles, psychiatrist.

The greatest majority of the energies of cosmic ray particles lie below 500,000,000 volts—Dr. Robert A. Millikan, president of the California Institute of Technology.

The United States National Museum has acquired 50 male skeletons from the Canton district of China, Dr. Ales Hrdlicka, of Washington, D. C., told the American Anthropological Association. The news is significant in that removal of the skele-

Don't Trifle With Coughs

Don't let them get a strangle hold. Fight germs quickly. Creomulsion combines the 7 best helps known to modern science. Powerful but harmless. Pleasant to take. No narcotics. Your druggist will refund your money if any cough or cold no matter how long standing is not relieved by Creomulsion. (adv.)

ARMY POST REMOVAL FROM BORDER SCORED

Connally's Attack Brings Hurley's Denial of Fear of Communists.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—(AP)—A lashing denunciation by Senator Connally of the war department's policy of moving troops from three southwest frontier posts to more populous centers tonight brought a sharp denial from Secretary Hurley that the plan hinged upon protection against "reds and communists."

The Texas democrat focused his attack upon the transfer of the entire military personnel from Camps D. A. Russell, in Texas, and Stephen A. Little and Harry J. Jones, in Arizona.

Describing the movement as "autocratic and false economy," Connally told the senate that Hurley had informed him that the form of government has got to be maintained and there are forces inimical to this government, such as reds and communists."

After quoting the secretary, Connally said he presumed the war department was "afraid of communism in the populous areas and wanted concentration camps near them."

In his reply, Hurley said, "I know I have never told him [Connally] that this country or any part of it was in any danger from communism or bolshevism."

"I know it is not," Hurley added. "Since he has mentioned it," the secretary's statement said, "I think the country is suffering more and will continue to suffer more from pork barrel politicians than it will from any threat he has mentioned."

"What the senator fails to realize is that the defense of the border is hardly correct. With the air force now concentrated in Texas, the border has never been so securely protected as now."

I think the senator is joking when he says about bolshevism. I dare say I am about as much afraid of bolsheviks as the average Texan is of the border raiders which Senator Connally seems to fear."

BOGMOLOFF TO SERVE AS RED ENVOY TO CHINA

NANKING, China, Dec. 30.—(AP)—The Chinese government today agreed to the appointment of Dimitri Bogmoloff as Soviet Russian ambassador to China. He is at present counsellor to the Russian embassy in London.

Hoover Dogs Accorded Place in Yule Cards

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—(AP)—The Hoover dogs, Weegie and Pat, pets of this administration in the White House, took their place in the 1932-33 presidential holiday greeting card.

Close friends of the Hoovers received a long, slim folder, on one side of which the president, in autograph and photograph, wished them merry Christmas and happy New Year.

On the other side, beneath a photo of the trio was the legend, "And so do Lou Henry Hoover and Weegie and Pat."

WOMEN LEGISLATORS CONTINUE TO DECREASE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—(AP)—A decrease of 15 in the number of women serving in state legislatures was noted today in the biennial analysis of the League of Women Voters.

The woman legislators totalled 131 and were serving in 33 states, as against 146 in 39 states in 1931, and 149 in 38 states in 1929.

ALLEGED BANDIT GANG TAKEN AFTER BATTLE

JAY, Okla., Dec. 30.—(AP)—Sixteen

Kansan and Oklahoma officers captured five outlaw suspects hiding in a hill ranch house near Kinwood, Okla., today after a gun fight.

Two of the men were wounded and Charles Warner, deputy United States marshal of Tulsa, was shot in the arm. The officers used rifles, pistol and tear gas.

AIMEE AGAIN IS ILL, HUSBAND REPORTS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—(AP)—A decrease of 15 in the number of women serving in state legislatures was noted today in the biennial analysis of the League of Women Voters.

The woman legislators totalled 131 and were serving in 33 states, as against 146 in 39 states in 1931, and 149 in 38 states in 1929.

MIAMIAN SUCCUMBS TO BOMB'S BULLET

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 30.—(AP)—

Alma S. Simeon, McPherson Hutton, evangelist, was reported by her husband, David L. Hutton, as being in a critical condition today.

Hutton said she has suffered repeated collapses during the past two years and is unable to leave her bed.

A nervous disorder, together with stomach trouble, was said to be the cause of the evangelist's most recent breakdown.

Brothers Accuse Brother In Shooting of Brother

WETUMPKA, Ala., Dec. 30.—

Samuel Owles, long prominent in the business and professional life of Elmore county, was family divided against itself today.

Clark Owles, a former electric merchant, was arrested on complaint of two brothers, Dr. Winfield and Professor Frank Owles, in the shooting of a fourth brother.

Dr. William L. Owles, recovering from five bullet wounds in a Montgomery hospital, was reported by officers to have been shot December 22 by Clifton Keith, a druggist who faces charges of assault with intent to murder.

Sheriff Hasty Golden said the two brothers filed an affidavit charging that Clark had threatened the life of Dr. William L. Owles.

Theaters To Usher in New Year With Midnight Shows Tonight

Four of Atlanta's first-run talking picture palaces, the Fox, the Georgia, the Grand and the Paramount, will hold midnight shows tonight, to usher in the new year of 1933. Owing to the fact that New Year's Day this time falls on Sunday, all four theaters will close their boxoffices promptly at 11:30 and no tickets will be sold after that time for any consideration. All patrons are asked to be in their seats before midnight.

The programs at all four theaters will start at 11:30 o'clock. New pictures will be offered at two of the houses later.

At Loew's Grand the attraction will be the splendid screen version of Eugene O'Neill's Pulitzer Prize play, "Strange Interlude," with Norma Shearer, Clive Brook and other popular players in the cast. This is now playing at this house.

At the Fox the double-feature program of "Her Mad Night," with Irene Rich, Conway Tearle, and "Tome Brown at Culver," with Ricard Cromwell and H. B. Warner, respectively.

At the Paramount the attraction will be "Man of Her Own," with Clark Gable and Carole Lombard in the principal roles. This feature will be the main attraction at this theater next week, after its initial showing tonight at midnight.

At the Georgia a special preview of the latest ghost thriller, "The Old Dark House," has been arranged. This will be the regular program at the Georgia the house will later date Boris Karloff in the star.

At Loew's Grand the attraction will be the splendid screen version of Eugene O'Neill's Pulitzer Prize play, "Strange Interlude," with Norma Shearer, Clive Brook and other popular players in the cast. This is now playing at this house.

At the Fox the double-feature program of "Her Mad Night," with Irene Rich, Conway Tearle, and "Tome Brown at Culver," with Ricard Cromwell and H. B. Warner, respectively.

At the Paramount the attraction will be "Man of Her Own," with Clark Gable and Carole Lombard in the principal roles. This feature will be the main attraction at this theater next week, after its initial showing tonight at midnight.

At the Georgia a special preview of the latest ghost thriller, "The Old Dark House," has been arranged. This will be the regular program at the Georgia the house will later date Boris Karloff in the star.

At Loew's Grand the attraction will be the splendid screen version of Eugene O'Neill's Pulitzer Prize play, "Strange Interlude," with Norma Shearer, Clive Brook and other popular players in the cast. This is now playing at this house.

At the Fox the double-feature program of "Her Mad Night," with Irene Rich, Conway Tearle, and "Tome Brown at Culver," with Ricard Cromwell and H. B. Warner, respectively.

At the Paramount the attraction will be "Man of Her Own," with Clark Gable and Carole Lombard in the principal roles. This feature will be the main attraction at this theater next week, after its initial showing tonight at midnight.

At the Georgia a special preview of the latest ghost thriller, "The Old Dark House," has been arranged. This will be the regular program at the Georgia the house will later date Boris Karloff in the star.

At Loew's Grand the attraction will be the splendid screen version of Eugene O'Neill's Pulitzer Prize play, "Strange Interlude," with Norma Shearer, Clive Brook and other popular players in the cast. This is now playing at this house.

At the Fox the double-feature program of "Her Mad Night," with Irene Rich, Conway Tearle, and "Tome Brown at Culver," with Ricard Cromwell and H. B. Warner, respectively.

At the Paramount the attraction will be "Man of Her Own," with Clark Gable and Carole Lombard in the principal roles. This feature will be the main attraction at this theater next week, after its initial showing tonight at midnight.

At the Georgia a special preview of the latest ghost thriller, "The Old Dark House," has been arranged. This will be the regular program at the Georgia the house will later date Boris Karloff in the star.

At Loew's Grand the attraction will be the splendid screen version of Eugene O'Neill's Pulitzer Prize play, "Strange Interlude," with Norma Shearer, Clive Brook and other popular players in the cast. This is now playing at this house.

At the Fox the double-feature program of "Her Mad Night," with Irene Rich, Conway Tearle, and "Tome Brown at Culver," with Ricard Cromwell and H. B. Warner, respectively.

At the Paramount the attraction will be "Man of Her Own," with Clark Gable and Carole Lombard in the principal roles. This feature will be the main attraction at this theater next week, after its initial showing tonight at midnight.

At the Georgia a special preview of the latest ghost thriller, "The Old Dark House," has been arranged. This will be the regular program at the Georgia the house will later date Boris Karloff in the star.

At Loew's Grand the attraction will be the splendid screen version of Eugene O'Neill's Pulitzer Prize play, "Strange Interlude," with Norma Shearer, Clive Brook and other popular

THE GUMPS—LET THE WHISTLES BLOW

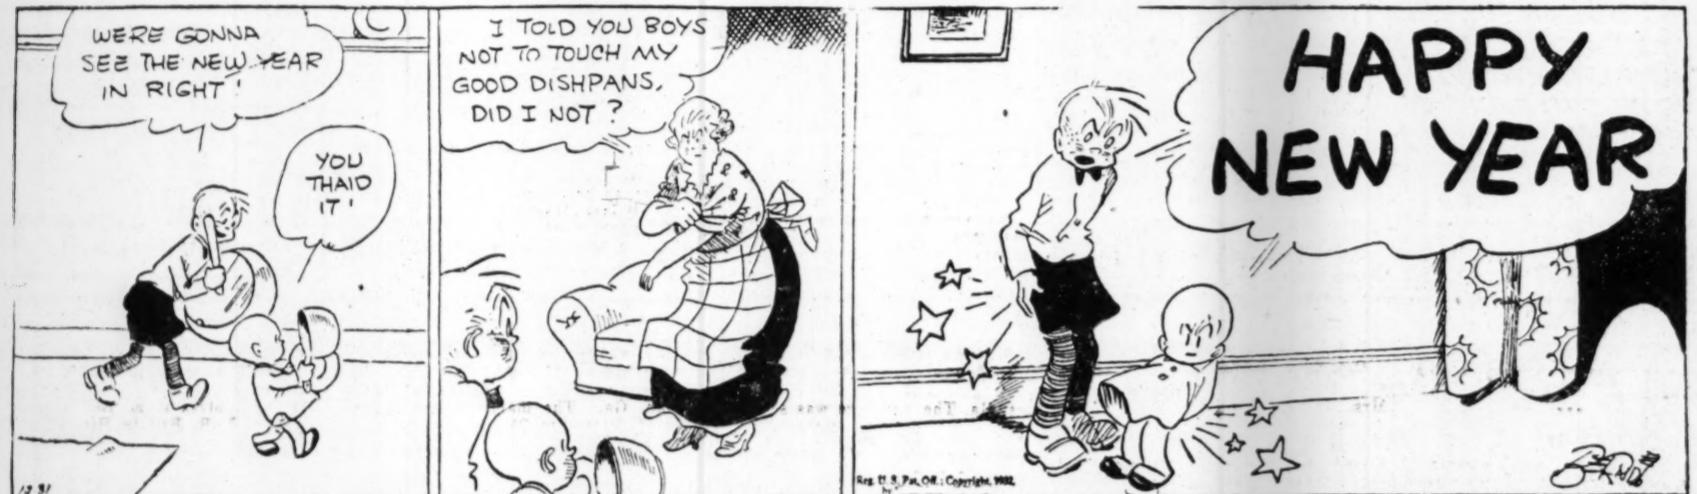

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE—HAPPY DAYS ARE HERE AGAIN

MOON MULLINS—WHEN THE CAT'S AWAY

SMITTY—THE SAME TO YOU!

GASOLINE ALLEY—WHITE MAGIC

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER—WELCOME, STRANGER!

FORLORN RIVER

A Message.

By Zane Grey

The Way You Take It

By Charles J. McGuirk

INSTALLMENT II.

Disloyalty, however, seemed to taint the air that morning. David Winstead harbored it as he strode into his office, and he could feel it creeping behind him after a conference with John Skidder, senior partner of Skidder, Jones, Lawrence & Perrin, Bonds. He thudded into his chair muttering: "The old stuffed shirt! What right has he to tell me what kind of a woman I should wear? How I should spend my money and how I should live?"

He was thinking of the tactful but pointed remarks old John had addressed to him on his failure to purchase the bonds of Mrs. Priscilla Anne Priscilla, a very able old lady moldered on the lines of the late and redoubtable Hetty Green.

"My dear Winstead," Old John had said, "it's quite possible that Mrs. Priscilla has some use as a means to purchase the bonds of your information had led us to believe. We'll give you the benefit of the doubt. However, you must pardon me for pointing out that your—ah—attire isn't exactly conducive to a belief that the market is recovering and good times are back again among us."

"My clothes," defended David, "were made by Don Bradley."

"Obviously," admitted Old John. "But when? Why, as obviously, several seasons ago. You create a certain effect, very impressionable, trying to avoid, that of a once injured prosperity. And I fail to find any record of your presence in places in which one would look for a successful vendor of gilt-edged securities. You must get out more."

There was much more along those lines, putting over the idea that a man who tried sensibly to conserve his assets was not as valuable to a reputable bond house as a tour flier who created an atmosphere of failure and prosperity. And this was merely Old John's personal opinion—it wouldn't have meant so much. But it wasn't. That was a warning. David got the distinct impression that he didn't abandon common sense and that a man and squander his money on clothes and frivolity he'd soon be out of a job.

The world, he mournfully realized, was going crazy from this depression. Even Nancy was infected, remaining in the room admitting to herself that Uncle Ed, sitting opposite her, was a pleasant relief in what seemed to be a world filled with fears and gloom. Uncle Ed was her mother's brother and, though he had started around the country as a caged act of 40, he seemed to have preserved a remarkably youthful outlook on life. He was gray-haired and inclined slightly toward bulging a bit in the middle. But his gray eyes were bright, wise, and (nearly always) amused.

He was a bachelor, but Nancy didn't believe for a moment that he had ever shunned the companionship of women. His appreciation of them, his tact in showing it, and his knowledge of the reactions of a three-year husband were all too keen. As, for instance, when he exhibited all three in his first words to her after ordering the salad.

"My dear Nancy," he smiled, "excuse me if I stand you out even among the beauties we've always been one of my favorite women since the day I first saw you. As I remember you, you were rolling in a disagreeable state of dress in your room. Does this still operate you as well—but not as often?"

"He loves me as well," Nancy admitted the pleasant half. "He's so worried, poor dear. The depression, you know."

"I know," Uncle Ed chuckled. "Dive is remarkable because it's living his life bind-end-to. Now, in his youth, he's conservative and fearful of the future. I wouldn't be surprised if at sixty he breaks out in loud ties and a set of indiscretions."

"My dear Winstead," Old John had said, "it's quite possible that Mrs. Priscilla has some use as a means to purchase the bonds of your information had led us to believe. We'll give you the benefit of the doubt. However, you must pardon me for pointing out that your—ah—attire isn't exactly conducive to a belief that the market is recovering and good times are back again among us."

"My clothes," defended David, "were made by Don Bradley."

"Obviously," admitted Old John. "But when? Why, as obviously, several seasons ago. You create a certain effect, very impressionable, trying to avoid, that of a once injured prosperity. And I fail to find any record of your presence in places in which one would look for a successful vendor of gilt-edged securities. You must get out more."

There was much more along those lines, putting over the idea that a man who tried sensibly to conserve his assets was not as valuable to a reputable bond house as a tour flier who created an atmosphere of failure and prosperity. And this was merely Old John's personal opinion—it wouldn't have meant so much. But it wasn't. That was a warning. David got the distinct impression that he didn't abandon common sense and that a man and squander his money on clothes and frivolity he'd soon be out of a job.

The world, he mournfully realized, was going crazy from this depression. Even Nancy was infected, remaining in the room admitting to herself that Uncle Ed, sitting opposite her, was a pleasant relief in what seemed to be a world filled with fears and gloom. Uncle Ed was her mother's brother and, though he had started around the country as a caged act of 40, he seemed to have preserved a remarkably youthful outlook on life. He was gray-haired and inclined slightly toward bulging a bit in the middle. But his gray eyes were bright, wise, and (nearly always) amused.

He was a bachelor, but Nancy didn't believe for a moment that he had ever shunned the companionship of women. His appreciation of them, his tact in showing it, and his knowledge of the reactions of a three-year husband were all too keen. As, for instance, when he exhibited all three in his first words to her after ordering the salad.

"My dear Nancy," he smiled, "excuse me if I stand you out even among the beauties we've always been one of my favorite women since the day I first saw you. As I remember you, you were rolling in a disagreeable state of dress in your room. Does this still operate you as well—but not as often?"

"He loves me as well," Nancy admitted the pleasant half. "He's so worried, poor dear. The depression, you know."

"I know," Uncle Ed chuckled. "Dive is remarkable because it's living his life bind-end-to. Now, in his youth, he's conservative and fearful of the future. I wouldn't be surprised if at sixty he breaks out in loud ties and a set of indiscretions."

"My dear Winstead," Old John had said, "it's quite possible that Mrs. Priscilla has some use as a means to purchase the bonds of your information had led us to believe. We'll give you the benefit of the doubt. However, you must pardon me for pointing out that your—ah—attire isn't exactly conducive to a belief that the market is recovering and good times are back again among us."

"My clothes," defended David, "were made by Don Bradley."

"Obviously," admitted Old John. "But when? Why, as obviously, several seasons ago. You create a certain effect, very impressionable, trying to avoid, that of a once injured prosperity. And I fail to find any record of your presence in places in which one would look for a successful vendor of gilt-edged securities. You must get out more."

There was much more along those lines, putting over the idea that a man who tried sensibly to conserve his assets was not as valuable to a reputable bond house as a tour flier who created an atmosphere of failure and prosperity. And this was merely Old John's personal opinion—it wouldn't have meant so much. But it wasn't. That was a warning. David got the distinct impression that he didn't abandon common sense and that a man and squander his money on clothes and frivolity he'd soon be out of a job.

The world, he mournfully realized, was going crazy from this depression. Even Nancy was infected, remaining in the room admitting to herself that Uncle Ed, sitting opposite her, was a pleasant relief in what seemed to be a world filled with fears and gloom. Uncle Ed was her mother's brother and, though he had started around the country as a caged act of 40, he seemed to have preserved a remarkably youthful outlook on life. He was gray-haired and inclined slightly toward bulging a bit in the middle. But his gray eyes were bright, wise, and (nearly always) amused.

He was a bachelor, but Nancy didn't believe for a moment that he had ever shunned the companionship of women. His appreciation of them, his tact in showing it, and his knowledge of the reactions of a three-year husband were all too keen. As, for instance, when he exhibited all three in his first words to her after ordering the salad.

"My dear Nancy," he smiled, "excuse me if I stand you out even among the beauties we've always been one of my favorite women since the day I first saw you. As I remember you, you were rolling in a disagreeable state of dress in your room. Does this still operate you as well—but not as often?"

"He loves me as well," Nancy admitted the pleasant half. "He's so worried, poor dear. The depression, you know."

"I know," Uncle Ed chuckled. "Dive is remarkable because it's living his life bind-end-to. Now, in his youth, he's conservative and fearful of the future. I wouldn't be surprised if at sixty he breaks out in loud ties and a set of indiscretions."

"My dear Winstead," Old John had said, "it's quite possible that Mrs. Priscilla has some use as a means to purchase the bonds of your information had led us to believe. We'll give you the benefit of the doubt. However, you must pardon me for pointing out that your—ah—attire isn't exactly conducive to a belief that the market is recovering and good times are back again among us."

"My clothes," defended David, "were made by Don Bradley."

"Obviously," admitted Old John. "But when? Why, as obviously, several seasons ago. You create a certain effect, very impressionable, trying to avoid, that of a once injured prosperity. And I fail to find any record of your presence in places in which one would look for a successful vendor of gilt-edged securities. You must get out more."

There was much more along those lines, putting over the idea that a man who tried sensibly to conserve his assets was not as valuable to a reputable bond house as a tour flier who created an atmosphere of failure and prosperity. And this was merely Old John's personal opinion—it wouldn't have meant so much. But it wasn't. That was a warning. David got the distinct impression that he didn't abandon common sense and that a man and squander his money on clothes and frivolity he'd soon be out of a job.

The world, he mournfully realized, was going crazy from this depression. Even Nancy was infected, remaining in the room admitting to herself that Uncle Ed, sitting opposite her, was a pleasant relief in what seemed to be a world filled with fears and gloom. Uncle Ed was her mother's brother and, though he had started around the country as a caged act of 40, he seemed to have preserved a remarkably youthful outlook on life. He was gray-haired and inclined slightly toward bulging a bit in the middle. But his gray eyes were bright, wise, and (nearly always) amused.

He was a bachelor, but Nancy didn't believe for a moment that he had ever shunned the companionship of women. His appreciation of them, his tact in showing it, and his knowledge of the reactions of a three-year husband were all too keen. As, for instance, when he exhibited all three in his first words to her after ordering the salad.

"My dear Nancy," he smiled, "excuse me if I stand you out even among the beauties we've always been one of my favorite women since the day I first saw you. As I remember you, you were rolling in a disagreeable state of dress in your room. Does this still operate you as well—but not as often?"

"He loves me as well," Nancy admitted the pleasant half. "He's so worried, poor dear. The depression, you know."

"I know," Uncle Ed chuckled. "Dive is remarkable because it's living his life bind-end-to. Now, in his youth, he's conservative and fearful of the future. I wouldn't be surprised if at sixty he breaks out in loud ties and a set of indiscretions."

"My dear Winstead," Old John had said, "it's quite possible that Mrs. Priscilla has some use as a means to purchase the bonds of your information had led us to believe. We'll give you the benefit of the doubt. However, you must pardon me for pointing out that your—ah—attire isn't exactly conducive to a belief that the market is recovering and good times are back again among us."

"My clothes," defended David, "were made by Don Bradley."

"Obviously," admitted Old John. "But when? Why, as obviously, several seasons ago. You create a certain effect, very impressionable, trying to avoid, that of a once injured prosperity. And I fail to find any record of your presence in places in which one would look for a successful vendor of gilt-edged securities. You must get out more."

There was much more along those lines, putting over the idea that a man who tried sensibly to conserve his assets was not as valuable to a reputable bond house as a tour flier who created an atmosphere of failure and prosperity. And this was merely Old John's personal opinion—it wouldn't have meant so much. But it wasn't. That was a warning. David got the distinct impression that he didn't abandon common sense and that a man and squander his money on clothes and frivolity he'd soon be out of a job.

The world, he mournfully realized, was going crazy from this depression. Even Nancy was infected, remaining in the room admitting to herself that Uncle Ed, sitting opposite her, was a pleasant relief in what seemed to be a world filled with fears and gloom. Uncle Ed was her mother's brother and, though he had started around the country as a caged act of 40, he seemed to have preserved a remarkably youthful outlook on life. He was gray-haired and inclined slightly toward bulging a bit in the middle. But his gray eyes were bright, wise, and (nearly always) amused.

He was a bachelor, but Nancy didn't believe for a moment that he had ever shunned the companionship of women. His appreciation of them, his tact in showing it, and his knowledge of the reactions of a three-year husband were all too keen. As, for instance, when he exhibited all three in his first words to her after ordering the salad.

"My dear Nancy," he smiled, "excuse me if I stand you out even among the beauties we've always been one of my favorite women since the day I first saw you. As I remember you, you were rolling in a disagreeable state of dress in your room. Does this still operate you as well—but not as often?"

"He loves me as well," Nancy admitted the pleasant half. "He's so worried, poor dear. The depression, you know."

"I know," Uncle Ed chuckled. "Dive is remarkable because it's living his life bind-end-to. Now, in his youth, he's conservative and fearful of the future. I wouldn't be surprised if at sixty he breaks out in loud ties and a set of indiscretions."

"My dear Winstead," Old John had said, "it's quite possible that Mrs. Priscilla has some use as a means to purchase the bonds of your information had led us to believe. We'll give you the benefit of the doubt. However, you must pardon me for pointing out that your—ah—attire isn't exactly conducive to a belief that the market is recovering and good times are back again among us."

"My clothes," defended David, "were made by Don Bradley."

"Obviously," admitted Old John. "But when? Why, as obviously, several seasons ago. You create a certain effect, very impressionable, trying to avoid, that of a once injured prosperity. And I fail to find any record of your presence in places in which one would look for a successful vendor of gilt-edged securities. You must get out more."

There was much more along those lines, putting over the idea that a man who tried sensibly to conserve his assets was not as valuable to a reputable bond house as a tour flier who created an atmosphere of failure and prosperity. And this was merely Old John's personal opinion—it wouldn't have meant so much. But it wasn't. That was a warning. David got the distinct impression that he didn't abandon common sense and that a man and squander his money on clothes and frivolity he'd soon be out of a job.

The world, he mournfully realized, was going crazy from this depression. Even Nancy was infected, remaining in the room admitting to herself that Uncle Ed, sitting opposite her, was a pleasant relief in what seemed to be a world filled with fears and gloom. Uncle Ed was her mother's brother and, though he had started around the country as a caged act of 40, he seemed to have preserved a remarkably youthful outlook on life. He was gray-haired and inclined slightly toward bulging a bit in the middle. But his gray eyes were bright, wise, and (nearly always) amused.

He was a bachelor, but Nancy didn't believe for a moment that he had ever shunned the companionship of women. His appreciation of them, his tact in showing it, and his knowledge of the reactions of a three-year husband were all too keen. As, for instance, when he exhibited all three in his first words to her after ordering the salad.

"My dear Nancy," he smiled, "excuse me if I stand you out even among the beauties we've always been one of my favorite women since the day I first saw you. As I remember you, you were rolling in a disagreeable state of dress in your room. Does this still operate you as well—but not as often?"

"He loves me as well," Nancy admitted the pleasant half. "He's so worried, poor dear. The depression, you know."

"I know," Uncle Ed chuckled. "Dive is remarkable because it's living his life bind-end-to. Now, in his youth, he's conservative and fearful of the future. I wouldn't be surprised if at sixty he breaks out in loud ties and a set of indiscretions."

"My dear Winstead," Old John had said, "it's quite possible that Mrs. Priscilla has some use as a means to purchase the bonds of your information had led us to believe. We'll give you the benefit of the doubt. However, you must pardon me for pointing out that your

SOCIETY EVENTS

East Atlanta Belles Honored at Dance

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 31.

Mrs. Lee Potter will entertain on Thursday, January 5, at a bridge-luncheon at her home on Dartmouth avenue, in Avondale Estates, the guests to include the members of the Atlanta Belles.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. French will entertain at a New Year's dinner party Sunday, January 1, at their home on Kensington road. Their guests include the families of Mr. and Mrs. Heaton and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Soriano.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Houston entertained at dinner last Monday at their home on Kensington road. Their guests included the families of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. French and Mr. and Mrs. E. Soriano.

Dr. and Mrs. Lucien Shouse and little granddaughter, of Ft. Thomas, Ky., spent several days with Mrs. David Leake during the holidays en route to Florida. Dr. and Mrs. Shouse are the parents of Lieutenant and Mrs. M. Ivy, who are stationed in the Philippines.

Colonel R. W. Green, of Etowah, Tenn., spent Christmas with his daughter, Mrs. C. L. Daugherty, on Clarendon avenue. The highlight of the season was a Christmas party on Wednesday evening, when members of the club gathered to spend an evening of dancing and cards, and Mrs. Vernon Conaway was hostess.

St. Paul Mothers' Class Holds Meeting.

Mothers' class of Park Street Methodist church held its monthly and social meeting at the home of Mrs. Hale on December 11.

Misses Evelyn and Edna Sherill, of the Atlanta Belles, were the hosts.

Georgia Rebekah Lodge No. 17, L. O. F. will sponsor a New Year's Eve party this evening at the hall, 101-12 Whitehall street, at 8 o'clock.

Members of the Standard Club will hold a dinner-dance this evening at the clubroom on Ponce de Leon avenue.

Mrs. Frances North will entertain at her home on Andrews drive in honor of Miss Sarah Jones, of Canton, who will also be honor guest at Miss Virginia Merry's party to be given this evening at her home on Woodcrest avenue, Brookwood Hills.

Viking Club will hold a dinner-dance this evening at the Danner Woman's Club, 342 West Ponce de Leon avenue, Decatur, at 7 o'clock.

Officers' Club of Fort McPherson will entertain at a New Year's Eve dance this evening at the armory.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Merrill will entertain at their home on Primrose drive in compliment to Misses Evelyn and Edna Sherill and Miss Elsie Jones, of East Atlanta.

Miss Barbara Baker will entertain at a small tea-dance from 5 to 7 o'clock this afternoon at her home on Seventh street.

The Oriental Club will give a New Year's Eve party this evening in the Egyptian ballroom of the Shrine mosque.

Needcraft Circle Gives Christmas Party.

Wednesday, December 23, the Needcraft Circle, held its Christmas party at the home of Mrs. T. H. Thompson, and Christmas decorations were attractively used in the house and in the dining room. Mesdames B. Longino and M. G. Perry poured coffee with a perfectly appointed table covered with a lace cloth. The center of attraction was the table filled with poinsettias and the candies and refreshments carried out the Christmas colors. Mesdames J. E. Biggs and A. Burnell presented a Christmas program. Mrs. Sam Davidson, in the role of "Old Santa Claus" distributed gifts from a beautifully decorated tree. Those present: Mesdames E. F. Perry, J. E. Biggs, A. Burnell, E. P. Carson, W. T. Buchanan, Sam Davidson, D. M. Horne, G. R. Fiddell, J. R. Brantlett, Frank McCormack, F. I. McDonnell, C. L. Holland, George Grant, George Powell, M. G. Perry, F. M. Rees, E. J. Walton, H. R. Longino, J. O. Mangum, R. F. Wells, Howard Nash, Frank Kopf, T. H. Thompson.

College Park Music Club Board Meets.

The December meeting of the executive board of the College Park Music Club will be held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. S. Patterson, co-hostess. Miss Eloise Olds, president, led an informal discussion of club affairs. Hoyt L. H. Williams, vice and means chairman, presented plans for a mammata bridge party to be given the last of January. Announcement was made of the McDowell festival to be held in Atlanta this spring, and that all entries must be registered with Mrs. Evelyn Jones on January 15. The next meeting of the executive board will be held at the home of Mrs. S. W. Jones on the fourth Wednesday in January with Mrs. Stokely Northcott as assisting hostess.

Classes Entertained.

Miss Louise Smith entertained at a tea-dance Friday in the Studio Arts building, complimenting the members of her junior class in ballroom dancing. Mrs. George B. Hoyt and Misses Lellita Stipe and Margaret Smith assisted in entertaining.

Miss Gladys Shuman, president of the Atlanta unit of Junior Hadassah, entertained Saturday last at a tea-dance honoring Miss Adele Kansas, of New Orleans, president of the southern region of Junior Hadassah. Miss Kansas attended the mid-winter conference of the national board of Junior Hadassah recently held in New York city, and was a guest at a dinner given by the Atlanta unit.

Members of Club Vanoy will entertain members of the younger set at an informal dance this evening at the Atlanta Woman's Club. Miss Frances Bryan, Mrs. George Allan, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Gandy, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Curry, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Shears.

Club Vanoy Dance.

Members of Club Vanoy will entertain members of the younger set at an informal dance this evening at the Atlanta Woman's Club. Miss Frances Bryan, Mrs. George Allan, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Gandy, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Curry, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Shears.

New Year's Dances.

More than 500 persons have made reservations for the dinner-dance and the floor show which will take place at the Wiesen Inn on New Year's Eve. Handsome souvenirs will be given to all guests. On New Year's there will be a supper-dance, starting at 12:01 Monday, and lasting until the early hours.

Hosts at Party.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Boss entertained at a dinner-dance Saturday evening at their home on McPherson avenue. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. George L. Malone and Mrs. C. D. Corley.

Miss Hull Honored.

Miss Florence Bryan and Miss Mary Bryan were hostesses at luncheon yesterday at their home on Peachtree road, in compliment to their cousin, Miss Lucile Hull, of Tulsa, Okla., the guest of honor. Miss Calender, of Atlanta, who is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hull, of Atlanta.

Covers were placed for Miss Hull, Miss Weller, Miss Frances Haven, Miss Catherine Carson and the hostesses.

Miss Hull is being shown much social attention during the season. She is the daughter of Joe Hull, prominent attorney of Tulsa, formerly of Athens, who is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hull, of Atlanta.

FRIENDLY COUNSEL
BY CAROLINE CHATFIELD

Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

The other night a woman and her husband went home after a party and after a long silence in which the wife was doing some melancholy thinking she said to her husband: "How do you account for the fact that I am here in my crowd and he is around her wherever she goes?" She is not pretty and she is not witty and she hasn't what I call sex-appeal." "Yes," replied the husband, who himself was one of the crowd that had hung around S. that evening, "she is exactly right, she is not pretty, but she is attractive sex-wise, but she has two things that most men admire and enjoy in a woman companion. She is sprightly and she is responsive.

You needn't be told that this is not middle-aged. There is no better proof of a man's maturity than his admission that he finds sprightliness in a woman supremely attractive. No doubt the younger men experience the same reaction to sprightliness but they haven't learned to single it out to classify it, nor to assign it to the charm of the female.

Most women have as their guests their brothers, Albert Ivey, and Luther Flits, who accompanied them home from a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Ivey, of Marietta.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Stewart and family and Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Johnson were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Huggins at their home on Stovall street. The party motored to Jefferson and were guests Sunday evening of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Collier.

Mrs. L. H. Bearden is recovering from an attack of appendicitis.

Mrs. E. Barrett, Mrs. G. A. Cole and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cherry were guests Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. McBryer. Mr. and Mrs. McBryer have returned from a month's visit at Hot Springs, Ark.

Mrs. J. E. McElrath, Miss Louise Tugle, Miss Caroleen Louise and their mother, Mrs. Louise Tugle, were guests of Mrs. J. L. Golden Christmas Day.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Gooch and Miss Jane Baker have returned from a short visit with relatives in Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Falls spent the holiday with their guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnston, of Union City, Ga.

Mrs. E. G. Stephens spent Sunday visiting friends in Snellville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Fincher were recent visitors in McDonough, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McClure entertained at dinner Sunday evening in their home on Metropolitan avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Johnson, T. O. Sturdivant Jr. and John Nelson, of Minneapolis, Minn., were guests Christmas Day at the home of Mrs. A. B. Rosendahl.

Sunbeams Meet.

Sunbeams of Cascade Baptist church held their season of prayer for foreign missions yesterday at the church at 2 o'clock.

30 U. S. JOB OFFICES TO CLOSE BY 1

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—(AP)—The department plans to close 30 of its 111 employment offices by next July 1.

This was disclosed in testimony by Secretary Doak before the house appropriations committee in behalf of a budget bureau request for $200,000 to keep the employment offices open for the next 12 months.

Doak said that when he was faced with the necessity of reducing expenditures, he cut salaries, ordered payless furloughs and refused to pay rent for the offices.

Style by Annette

BY ELY CULBERTSON, World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst.

A Bidding Paradox

Howell games in which the scores are computed by match-point method, should create some very unusual situations.

It is extremely rare, however, that teams which bid only a Small Slam on a board are able to defeat teams which bid a Grand Slam, considering that the Grand Slam can be made. This, however, was the case on the following hand, which was played at the tables at Wayne Ferguson studio in New York not long ago:

South-Dowler.

North-South vulnerable.

♦ 9 7 3
V A K Q 7 6 4
Q 8 2
A

♦ K Q 10 8 N A J 5 3
6 4 W E J 8 2
V 7 6 S J 10 9 4
5 3 2

♦ 10 9 5 3
A K 9 4
Q K 8 7 6

At most tables the North and South teams stopped at six hearts and made seven. The bidding in most cases went:

South West North East

1 Pass 2 Pass Pass

2 Pass 3 Pass Pass

6 Pass Pass Pass

en, therefore, received bottom, as the people with whom they were competing had bid only six and made seven, scoring 1,010 on the board.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

(Copyright, 1932, for The Constitution.)

en, therefore, received bottom, as the people with whom they were competing had bid only six and made seven, scoring 1,010 on the board.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

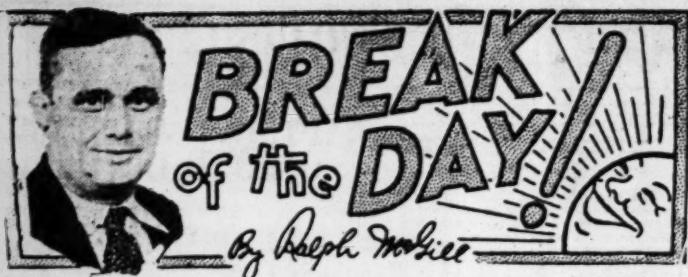

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized for reaching a Grand Slam.

While this might be considered somewhat unfair, it must be remembered that the East and West played at different tables, hence more score than those who did not, as they made use of the defensive tactics at their command. Even so, it seems a little unfortunate to be penalized

HAVANA, Dec. 30.—(By Press Cable.)—Ambassador Harry Guggenheim flew here from Florida following an interview with President Herbert Hoover today in order to be host to the Georgia Tech football team at a luncheon and swimming party at the exclusive Havana Yacht Club. "Chip" Robert, Atlantan and alumnus of Tech, also was here for the luncheon. Guggenheim is the son of the late Daniel Guggenheim, donor of Tech's new aeronautical building. The Tech party will reach Atlanta at 5 p. m. Sunday.

EN ROUTE TO THE STATES WITH GEORGIA TECH FOOTBALL PARTY, Dec. 30.—Cuba, the Pearl of the Antilles, is behind us and our voyage is approaching its end. Saturday will come the first glimpse of the mainland when the boat touches on the keys of the Florida peninsula. That, to me, will be a very pleasant sight indeed. I am like the country boy who is not at home until he feels the sand of native terra firma seeping in over his shoe-tops.

I know now why they call it the land of the free, the home of the brave and my country 'tis of these. And why the Yankee tourist returning from abroad becomes pop-eyed at the first viewing of the Statue of Liberty's long arm, beckoning him through the fog of early dawn.

The boys—meaning the Tech football team—will also be glad when they have reached journey's end. They have had many happy moments since they first boarded the S. S. Virginia in Los Angeles harbor. They have seen many new and exotic sights to which they have been a revelation. But they likewise have had their moments of nostalgia. A wave of homesickness for native land has hit the entire party, even Coach Bill Alexander, who usually is the last man to give way to his emotions.

HAVANA INTERESTING.

Havana, the last port of call, was not without its charms. The boys found it a little different from Balboa and Panama City in the Canal Zone. They saw at the first hand the land glorified in the various orchestrations—you know, "where Yuba plays the rumba on his tuba, down in Cuba." Is that right? Anyway, this is where the rumba originated, they do say. The players were guests while here of Harry H. Guggenheim, America's ambassador to Cuba, and who holds an honorary degree from Georgia Tech.

The natives over here pronounce Havana like "Habana." In other words, the last syllable does not rhyme with "banana," as we Americans say it. It is like the "ana" in "manana"—Cuban for tomorrow.

There were many civic points of interest to be visited.

There was "Sloppy Joe's Place," which has its appeal, but of course none but the newspapermen were eligible there. I recalled that the Brooklyn Dodgers played a series of exhibition games over here once and that Uncle Wilbert Robinson had a terrible time keeping the boys isolated from "Sloppy Joe's." The Dodgers got started late that season and of course Joe got all the blame.

MONKEYS AMUSING.

Thus far the players have not added a great many Spanish words to their vocabularies. Consequently they are having considerable difficulty conversing with the small tribe of monkeys on board. Raucous simian squeals of misunderstanding have greeted the best efforts of the boys to be Castilian. They have taught the monkeys a few tricks, however, and they are no end of fun on deck. Maybe the monkeys will become naturalized once they see the Florida palms, but it is interesting to observe what their reaction will be when the choo-choo train steams into the Atlanta Terminal New Year's Day with all the noise of the station and welcoming crowds grating on their sensitive ears.

MORGAN AND CAPTAIN KIDD.

Bright and early Saturday morning Mike Chambers and I will discover whether Coach Alexander has made the preparations he had planned for getting us off the ship and onto the dock at Key West, U. S. A. He announced before the trip started that he had made arrangements to have the largest derrick available for the landing ceremony.

Our ship is to steam through the languid turquoise waters of the Florida straits, where Morgan and Captain Kidd, famous old pirates, once conducted their nefarious expeditions of plunder and slaughter.

Off the coast of Key West flows the Spanish Main, famous in narrative and adventure. Morgan and Captain Kidd added to its glamor and notoriety.

In Key West, they do say, there is a Cuban drink, concocted from herbs, named "Composto." It is not a bootleg beverage and is drunk by the Cubans and Spaniards for its invigorating qualities. Perhaps it is something like the "Joe Engel Gingerale."

The thought of landing, once again, on the shores of the good old U. S. A. is invigorating enough for the Tech players, who have enjoyed this trip to the fullest.

From Key West, with its shuttered, low-built houses, we will take a ferry to a depot on one of the keys, where we are to board a train and begin the last stage of the return trip to Atlanta. The final chapter in the glorious three-week trip will be written Sunday afternoon when the train pulls into the Terminal station.

It was just as well, I guess, that we had no longer than a day to spend in Cuba, for the Tech boys had heard beforehand how the señoritas were not allowed to have dates unchaperoned. Either mother or father must go along. Oh, well.

The trip has been worth a year of geographical study in the classrooms to the Tech football squad.

Farewell to Christmas, SPORTS CELEBRITIES SEND INTERESTING CARDS "Saddest" of Seasons

By Jimmy Jones.

This is by way of being a farewell to Christmas, which is the saddest of all seasons for the sports writers. They must contrive to write something each day, when there is nothing whatever happening to write about.

One might comment, however, on the ever interesting array of Christmas cards that trickle in from various sports celebrities over the land: Some of them are strikingly original, others original, and virtually all of them expressing a sentiment identified with the particular sport which the sender helps to glorify.

Take, for instance, the famous Grick, who last year sent out clothes brushes and see the fight. He delicately refrained from mentioning the price of ringside seats.

David Irenu (Red) Barron, erstwhile manager of the ill-starred Crackers, sent a card thoroughly in keeping with the spirit of that splendid fellow, "Red," from his home at Monroe. Wished Charlie Moore, the new Atlanta manager, the Atlanta fans a better ball club in 1933 than that which he piloted last season. A very gallant gesture from David Irenu.

James Thompson (Doc) Prothro, manager of the Memphis Chickasaws, who were nosed out for the Southern league pennant by Chattanooga on a few percentage points, wished himself better luck in 1933.

EASY FOR "JEEM." One could see that the euphony of the line appealed to London. It is very easy, however, for me to smile at 1933. He had only two falls since he became champion of the wrestlers, while the sports writers have not won a fall since the depression set in. Consequently we cannot smile with London in 1933. He smiles too broadly.

Jack Dempsey always a thoughtful cuss, had a Christmas card made up with a layout showing himself seated between Herr Joseph Jacobo, manager of Max Schmeling and Herr Axel Hollman, manager of Max Baer, the two Teutonic pugilists who will fight in Dempsey's show in the spring. Jack's cheery Yuletide message has as its peroration an invitation to come

LOUISA ROBERT PLACES SECOND IN BACKSTROKE

Lenore Kight Claims Record in 500-Meter Free Style.

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 30.—(AP)—Lenore Kight, of Homestead, Pa., today claimed a new world's record in the 500-meter free style swim as she swam 5:10.4, breaking the record in 7 minutes 2:3-5 seconds, chopping 9-2 seconds from the recognized time of Helene Madison, of Seattle, Wash., in 1931.

Miss Kight made her claim after a swim against time in the Miami Biltmore pool on a swimming exhibition by members of the 1932 Olympic and national swimming teams.

Katherine Rawls, diminutive 15-year-old swimmer from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., claimed her fourth record today when she established, in the presence of Florida A. & M. officials, a time of 12-2-5 in the 300-yard medley swim. The previous mark was held by Eleanor Holm, and was 4 minutes 16 seconds.

Joan McSheehy, of New York, won a 75-yard free stroke event in 53-25 seconds. Louise Abbott, of Atlanta, was second and Lise Lindstrom, of New York, was third.

Dorothea Dickinson, of New York, won the 150-yard free style swim in one minute 46 seconds. Josephine McKim, Panama, was second and Anna May O'Gorman, of Homestead, Pa., third.

Margaret Hoffman, of Scranton, Pa., won the 200-yard breast stroke event in two minutes, 56 seconds. Greta Gusta, of Miami, was second; Georgia Coleman, 1932 Olympic diving champion; Helen Meany, 1928 Olympic champion, and Katherine Rawls gave an exhibition of diving from a ten-foot board and from the tower.

JASPER'S DRILL IN BLAZING SUN

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 30.—(AP)—Twenty-two members of the Manhattan College football squad took to Florida fields again today in preparation for an inter-sectional battle on Monday with the University of Miami Hurricanes.

Today was the fourth day Chick Meehan, coach of the Manhattan team, has sent his charges out under the blazing rays of a Florida sun to accustom them to playing conditions in the fourth month.

Meehan has been greatly concerned lest his team fail to become acclimated to weather conditions before the whistle blows for the game, and lest their playing be affected for this reason.

So far, Meehan has planned no swimming in practice sessions, but he has nevertheless kept members of the squad on the jump during workouts by hand tossing, kicking and general work tending to harden them against semitropical weather.

The Hurricanes under the guidance of Bob Zupke, diminutive University of Illinois mentor and their own coach, Tommy McCann, likewise went again about the business of preparing for the contest, probably one of the most important in the history of the University.

Okeson Heads Committee On Rules

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—(UP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association today elected Walter R. Okeson, treasurer of Lek zh University, to the chairmanship of the association's football rules committee.

Okeson succeeds to the post one of the most important ones in the athletic world, filled the vacancy created by the death of E. K. Hall in November.

Prior to Okeson's election, Major John J. Griffith, Big Ten conference commissioner, was chosen president of the N. C. A. A. and succeeded Dr. Charles W. Kennedy, of Princeton, W. S. Langford, of New York, was re-elected secretary of the football rules committee and Amos Alonso Stagg made a life member of the University.

Through the selection of H. J. Chapman of Georgia, to the rules committee, as representative of the third or southern district, the N. C. A. A. automatically postponed any consideration of increasing membership of the committee further, to give representation to the surviving group of the Southern conference, now confined to the Carolinas, Virginia and Maryland. Stogman was named for a four-year term.

Other members of the rules committee, all holdovers, are: Ray Morrison, Southern Methodist; W. O. Hunter, Southern California; W. G. Crowell, Swarthmore; C. Henry Smith, Denver; William J. Birmingham, Harvard; Dana X. Bible, Nebraska.

Tulane Defeats Tennessee, 31 to 23

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 30.—(AP)—Tulane University's basketball team won its first Southeastern conference game tonight by taking the first of a two game series with the University of Tennessee, 31 to 23.

Surprise Attack Made on Pass.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—(UP)—A surprise attack on the forward pass was the only direct hit at rules revision in the annual report submitted today to the National Collegiate Athletic Association by its football rules committee.

William H. Langford, committee secretary, declared indiscriminate use of the pass had upset the balance between attack and defense. He said that unless coaches and teams made a readjustment in 1933, the rules body would be forced to take action.

He said the suggestion had urged upon the committee to restrict the forward pass have been postponed in the hope that this would adjust itself.

His report stated that while changes in the football rules had accomplished wonders in cutting down injuries, the game still was not safe from serious and fatal injuries in 1932 and again would have to wrestle with the problem of safeguarding players. Only three deaths in 1932 were attributed to football directly.

"SUEY" WELSH.

"Suey" Welsh, a fight manager of Akron, Ohio, a card displaying the physiques of his outfit for stable, with a P. S. to the effect that any one needing any pugilists during the New Year might obtain same by tele-

Continued on Page 15.

Continued on Page 15.

SPORTS

ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

RALPH MCGILL, Sports Editor.
Grantland Rice - Clarence Nixon - Jimmy Jones - Roy White - Jack Troy - W. O. McGeehan - Alan J. Gould

THE CONSTITUTION, ATLANTA, GA., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1932.

PAGE ELEVEN

S. V. SANFORD DECLARER WAR ON SUBSIDIZING

Challenges N. C. A. A. To Wipe It Out Along With Proselyting.

Continued from First Page.

moreal courage to formulate a rule that can be enforced.

"Shall we hold to a rule that is out of date, and continue a practice that is shameful, or shall we adopt a rule that can be followed and in a large measure put an end to subsidizing?"

"We all know this evil exists in our colleges and universities, to a large extent in some and to a small extent in others. We must be willing to discuss this evil without coming to a definite plan for its elimination? It can be eliminated—it should be—it must be! As practical minded men, we should face the situation as it exists in this modern complex civilization."

"All of us like to think of the ideal—but we have to live and move in the realm of the real. We must define what is real, what is ideal, what constitutes proper loans, positions and scholarships. When this is done, it is my opinion that colleges and universities will follow the regulation in letter and spirit."

Dr. Sanford explained later that a wealthy man were to subsidize a scholar, that would be considered a marvelous thing for service, but if this scholar were to send a deserving boy with athletic ability through school that was subsidization.

He asked that the association, before height of public opinion forced it into action, do something voluntarily about a situation where young men who have been "stars, idols of alumni, heroes of public, sporting writers, young men who have failed to complete their college work, failed to receive diplomas."

They qualify neither for teaching nor coaching positions, he said, but are young men exploited for the glory of their institutions at the expense of themselves, eligible to play on any team in college through meeting minimum requirements, with nothing to show for it at the end for four years in school.

He asked that the association, before height of public opinion forced it into action, do something voluntarily about a situation where young men who have been "stars, idols of alumni, heroes of public, sporting writers, young men who have failed to complete their college work, failed to receive diplomas."

They qualify neither for teaching nor coaching positions, he said, but are young men exploited for the glory of their institutions at the expense of themselves, eligible to play on any team in college through meeting minimum requirements, with nothing to show for it at the end for four years in school.

He asked that the association, before height of public opinion forced it into action, do something voluntarily about a situation where young men who have been "stars, idols of alumni, heroes of public, sporting writers, young men who have failed to complete their college work, failed to receive diplomas."

He asked that the association, before height of public opinion forced it into action, do something voluntarily about a situation where young men who have been "stars, idols of alumni, heroes of public, sporting writers, young men who have failed to complete their college work, failed to receive diplomas."

He asked that the association, before height of public opinion forced it into action, do something voluntarily about a situation where young men who have been "stars, idols of alumni, heroes of public, sporting writers, young men who have failed to complete their college work, failed to receive diplomas."

He asked that the association, before height of public opinion forced it into action, do something voluntarily about a situation where young men who have been "stars, idols of alumni, heroes of public, sporting writers, young men who have failed to complete their college work, failed to receive diplomas."

He asked that the association, before height of public opinion forced it into action, do something voluntarily about a situation where young men who have been "stars, idols of alumni, heroes of public, sporting writers, young men who have failed to complete their college work, failed to receive diplomas."

He asked that the association, before height of public opinion forced it into action, do something voluntarily about a situation where young men who have been "stars, idols of alumni, heroes of public, sporting writers, young men who have failed to complete their college work, failed to receive diplomas."

He asked that the association, before height of public opinion forced it into action, do something voluntarily about a situation where young men who have been "stars, idols of alumni, heroes of public, sporting writers, young men who have failed to complete their college work, failed to receive diplomas."

He asked that the association, before height of public opinion forced it into action, do something voluntarily about a situation where young men who have been "stars, idols of alumni, heroes of public, sporting writers, young men who have failed to complete their college work, failed to receive diplomas."

He asked that the association, before height of public opinion forced it into action, do something voluntarily about a situation where young men who have been "stars, idols of alumni, heroes of public, sporting writers, young men who have failed to complete their college work, failed to receive diplomas."

He asked that the association, before height of public opinion forced it into action, do something voluntarily about a situation where young men who have been "stars, idols of alumni, heroes of public, sporting writers, young men who have failed to complete their college work, failed to receive diplomas."

He asked that the association, before height of public opinion forced it into action, do something voluntarily about a situation where young men who have been "stars, idols of alumni, heroes of public, sporting writers, young men who have failed to complete their college work, failed to receive diplomas."

He asked that the association, before height of public opinion forced it into action, do something voluntarily about a situation where young men who have been "stars, idols of alumni, heroes of public, sporting writers, young men who have failed to complete their college work, failed to receive diplomas."

He asked that the association, before height of public opinion forced it into action, do something voluntarily about a situation where young men who have been "stars, idols of alumni, heroes of public, sporting writers, young men who have failed to complete their college work, failed to receive diplomas."

He asked that the association, before height of public opinion forced it into action, do something voluntarily about a situation where young men who have been "stars, idols of alumni, heroes of public, sporting writers, young men who have failed to complete their college work, failed to receive diplomas."

He asked that the association, before height of public opinion forced it into action, do something voluntarily about a situation where young men who have been "stars, idols of alumni, heroes of public, sporting writers, young men who have failed to complete their college work, failed to receive diplomas."

He asked that the association, before height of public opinion forced it into action, do something voluntarily about a situation where young men who have been "stars, idols of alumni, heroes of public, sporting writers, young men who have failed to complete their college work, failed to receive diplomas."

He asked that the association, before height of public opinion forced it into action, do something voluntarily about a situation where young men who have been "stars, idols

FURTHER GAINS MADE BY STOCKS

Daily Stock Summary.

(Copyright, 1932, Standard Statistics Co.)

Friday Ind. B.R. & Total 20

Previous 51.9 28.7 91.5 54.9

Week ago 49.9 25.1 84.0 52.0

Month ago 49.9 25.1 84.0 52.0

2 years ago 42.5 32.3 99.1 64.3

5 years ago 147.5 121.5 128.4 134.7

10 years ago 72.9 38.9 111.0 73.9

Low (1931) 14.2 12.8 35.0 25.0

High (1931) 140.2 104.2 203.0 140.2

60.9 39.2 92.6 61.3

High (1932) 141.4 281.2 205.8 141.4

12.5 39.2 145.0 114.7

Dow-Jones Averages.

BY THE UNITED PRESS

Stocks, open 100 High 200

20 Ind. 56.62 60.54 58.82 52.00

20 Rail. 23.67 28.39 23.28 26.06

20 Util. 27.43 27.83 27.16 27.05

20 Industrials 91.60 92.00 91.54 92.04

Closes 77.51 50.50 58.82 52.00

10 First rail. 20.50 20.50 20.50 20.50

10 Second rail. 58.66 58.80 58.80 58.80

10 Util. 91.60 92.00 91.54 92.04

10 Industrials 71.51 53.04 53.04 53.04

Tone of the Markets.

NEW YORK. CHICAGO. WHEAT—Strong.

BONDS—Very Strong.

CURRIE—Firm.

CATTLE—Firm.

COTTON—Lower.

HOGS—Dragged.

What the Market Did.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—(AP)—Stocks ended the last five-hour trading day of 1932 with another advance, one that was accompanied by a strong upturn in bond prices, and firmness of grains.

Little affected by isolated weakness in the tobacco shares discovered that the line of least resistance upward, with shorts beginning to cover, the market, end-of-week, and tax selling reduced cash transactions, the market found it fairly easy to rally, building its strength chiefly on a spurt by the copper and steel shares.

The average gain was 1.3 points, virtually the same as Thursday's. Volume, however, dropped to 1,045,614.

Led by a 4-point break in Liggett & Myers' B, tobacco ended sharply.

With a sharp dip in the market, scheduled for a reduction, perhaps next week. This reflected recent discussions over the competition being offered by popular and well-advertised brands of the newer, cheaper lines.

Revival of speculative interest in copper accompanied a spurt in "new orders" for the metal which might be placed soon. Kennebunk and Anchorage both rose about 1.12 net.

United States Steel, up 1.12, the best, held most of its gain and the preferred climbed 2, presumably a reflection of some recent purchases. Bethlehem's gain was about the same. Net gains of major fractional size were recorded by American Can, General Electric, General Motors, American Telephone, Texas Corporation.

TOBACCO STOCKS DECLINE ON PRICE CUT RUNOVER

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—(AP)—The tobacco stocks suffered a decline on the New York Stock Exchange today on a recurrence of unconfirmed rumors that the "big four" manufacturers were considering a slash in cigarette prices.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.37 and $1.87, while the common stock of Lorillard and R. J. Reynolds companies showed more modest declines.

Most of the standard brands are sold by the manufacturers at approximately $6.85 a thousand, and according to the reports circulating today, this figure may be shaded to the extent of 60 or 70 cents a thousand, thus making it possible for retailers to cut their price to around 12 1/2 cents a package.

Liggett & Myers' common and common "B" dropped $3.75 to $32.25, respectively. American Tobacco's common "B" were shaken down $1.

REAL ESTATE FOR RENT

Apartment Furnished 74
Euclid Ave. 203-3 rooms, clean, nicely furnished. $25. H.P. 7652-W.
500 WASHINGTON ST.—Attractive 2 or 3-room apartment. $4 and $5; garage.
INMAN PARK—3 nicely furnished rooms, private bath, gas, central. DE 3652-W.
FOUR ROOM APT. FURNISHED: PRICE
RIGHT. WA 2722.

Apartments Unfurnished 74-A

2000 PEACHTREE RD. 3 and 4 rooms.
2215 PEACHTREE RD. 3 rooms, $35.
8 COLLIER RD. 4 and 5 rooms.
1111-1125 BRIARCLIFF PL. 4 and 5 rooms.
ALL buildings personally managed and well kept.

G. SHIPP

315 Grand Theater Bldg.
Office, WA 8372. Home, RE 1334.

Call Adams-Cates Co.

For Apartments and Houses
Vacant Lots WA 4477.

ON PIEDMONT PARK, 2111 St. Lovely duplex. 6 and 7 rooms, electric refrigeration, gas, central heat, $1000. Reduced to $900.
Owner, HE 9684-R.

GRANGER COURT, 433-39 N. Highland,
N. E.—2, 3- and 4-room, efficiency apt., one bath.
Resident, Mr. 429 N. Highland, Apt. 1.

THE PONCE DE LEON AVE.—
UNDERWOOD, 1125-1135, attractively decorated apt.; G. E. Owner, DE 3477-J.

MARYLAND APT.—Ideal location, large apartment, 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, efficiency apt.,
gas, central heat, $1000. Reduced to $900.
Owner, HE 9684-R.

711 MORELAND AVE. N. E.—4 rooms, upper or lower, stove, refrigerator, heat, water, furnace, $25. WA 3702. WA 5958.

WARM—COZY—FIRST FLOOR.
4 rooms—bath, central heat, $1000.
Pleasant—Quiet. HE 3232-P.

WEST END—Attractive duplexes 3 rms., bath, $83 York. 628 Lawton, RA 4334.

SP18 Moreland Ave., N. E. 3
rms., efficiency G. E. JA 0787
3 RMR, and breakfast rm., pri. bath, heat, garage; central heat, $100. Stoves, RA 1238.

Andrews Dr., 289 N. Highland, Apt. 1.
Resident, Mr. 429 N. Highland, CH 2833.

ASLEY PARK—Five-room corner apt. He ated, rental, Goodman, RA 853 Westmar.

919 GREENWOOD—Lovely 3-rm. efficiency apt., frig., reduced to $25. MA 3087.

23 ALEXANDER, 4 room, 2 bath, electric elevator, walking distance. MA 1128.

MOST DESIRABLE APARTMENTS IN THE CITY
AND SUBURBS & LOCALITY. WA 4100.

15th St. Station, HE 1309.

450 ANGIER, N. E.—3 large rms., steam heat, ress., WA 2402.

5-5 RM. apta., st. ht., pri. bath, garage,
$22. 5750. RA 304 Washington.

822-832 BRIARCLIFF RD.—4 rooms, reduced electric, walking distance. MA 1128.

4 ROOMS, garage, pri. bath, block Lee and Gordon Rds., RA 6270.

Apartment Fur. or Unfur. 75

Briarcliff Investment Co.

"Apartments of Distinction,"

1030 Ponce de Leon, HE 6280.

INSMAN PARK—4 and 5 rooms, choice locations, all courts. Adults, WA 8000.

Business Places for Rent 75A

WAREHOUSE space, Private R. R. siding,
Pr. office, North Side location, HE 2667.

PRETTY red brick store, 250 Glens at Formosa, reduced $35. WA 4329.

Houses for Rent, Furnished 77

73 Palisades Rd.—7 rms., home, rent cheap. HE 3267.

Houses for Rent, Unfurnished 77A

975 WILLIAMS MILL RD.—5 rooms, first floor, heat, ress., central heat, $1000.
A-1 condition. $35. will furnish for $45. Wynne Realty Co., 640 Highland Ave.
HE 4040.

FOR RENT—IN BUCKHEAD AND PEACHTREE RD. SECTION, CALL HAROLD MCKENZIE CO., CH 1151.

404 GLEN IRIS DR.—Owner's home, to rentable rooms. 8 rms., bath, cream brick bungalow. Conveniences, $70.

1290 McLENDON—3 rooms, near Little
Five Points, 1 or 2 families. Owner, DE 1328-W.

NORTH SIDE—3 ROOM HOUSE, EVERY CONVENIENCE, REASONABLE. HE 6000.

1391 Euclid, N. E.—Large, beautiful house, surprisingly reasonable rent.
HE 2924-W.

N. KIRKWD.—3rd Sutherland Dr. Desirable
3 rooms, heat, ress., central heat, $1000.

1420 LIVERNMORE, N. E.—3 rooms, arranged two families. $35. DE 2900-J.

NICE 3-RM. cottage, $22, suitable 2 families.
Modern conveniences. 206, Windsor, S. W.
N. SIDE—7 rms. hung on good conditions, good party. DE 1018-R.

430 Sterling, N. E.—Desirable 6 rm. bungalo, newly done. DE 0521-M.

6 RM. bungalow, bath, central condition, off
Gordon or Holloman. DE 2900.

604 Mead St., near park and schools
MA 3522.

22-30 Remodeled 3 rm. duplex. Water heating, large lot, 422 Broxton St., RA 2904.

1444 De Soto Ave.—5 rm. house, A-1 condition, garden, garage. RA 2819.

19 CLAY ST., Kirkwood, 5 rms., redecorated and modernized. RA 2800.

WEST END park 3 rooms, redecorated for heat, mod. conds., garage. RA 4066.

1200 SYLVAN ROAD—5 rm. frame, furnace, carse, DE 6. B. Beale, WA 2811.

BARGAIN—6 room bungalow and garage for $15. E. L. Hastings, WA 2820.

1142 WESTVIEW DR.—3 rooms, heat, water, gas, central heat. RA 2800.

BRIDGEWOOD—Overhead, office, desks, phone, most all. William Oliver Blod.

NORTH SIDE—6 rooms, suitable two families. Reduced. JA 2733.

1355 LUCILLE—Nice 3 room house, $45. Best location in West End.

Houses for Rent, Fur. or Unfur. 77B

872 W. P. Tree, 2 rms., 3 baths. Refs.
Owner, HE 6400.

Houses for Rent (Colored) 78

OFF. West Franklin, house, sink, electricity, $15. 1440 Walnut, S. W.

Office Space for Rent 78A

PRIVATE OFFICES—Desks, steno, complete secretarial and phone service. 1314 Rhodes Business Bldg.

DESK space, office, phone, steno service
124-125 1st Natl. Bldg., WA 1803.

Wanted to Rent 81

THREE ROOM, unfurnished, apartment in Aspin Park. Give details. Address E 228.
Constitution.

FUR—3 or 2 bedrooms, North Side in Grant Park. RA 2802.

NEED several small houses to rent now.
C. F. Frazee Realty Co., WA 1172.

Buy Now

EAST POINT
CHEVROLET COMPANY

For New Year's Day

WE CAN ARRANGE TERMS TO SUIT
YOU.

EAST POINT
CHEVROLET

308 N. Main St. East 1 Ga.
CA 2168

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

Brokers in Real Estate R

A. CRAVEN—3 room, 1 bath, income property and farms. 152 Auburn Ave.

BURDITT REALTY CO., WA 1011

116 Candler Bldg.

HAAS, HOWELL & DODD, WA 3011

J. R. SCHUTT & CO., 101 1/2 1/2 St., S. E.

RANKIN WHITEN CO., Desirable estate and rents. 141 Carnegie St., NW, WA 0636.

Farms and Lands for Sale 83

FARM lands best prices, easy terms. H. S.
Drake, 1128 First Bldg., NW, Bldg.

Houses for Sale 84

North Side

LET'S TRADE

Morningside Dr. home and income rented for about enough to pay for place and give you a little more. Let's talk it over.
Mr. Howell, sales department.

Greylings Realty Corp.,
10 21st St. N. W., WA 2826.

East Atlanta

A 6-ROOM bungalow, level lot, on McPherson Ave., near Moreland, for $3,000 on Greylings' terms.
157-159 1/2 1/2 St., N. W., WA 2826.

GREYLINGS APT. FURNISHED: PRICE
RIGHT. WA 2722.

We Can Arrange Terms to Suit
You.

EAST POINT
CHEVROLET

308 N. Main St. East 1 Ga.
CA 2168

THE SPORTLIGHT
By Thornton Rice

Continued From Page 11.

Particularly at Pitt's left flank, where I don't believe Dailey can stand up under the pressure of Erskine, Palmer and others.

S. C. READY.

"Out here, of course, everybody takes it for granted that U. S. C. is going to win, which is natural. Howard Jones has his boys in fine mental and physical condition and there is no reason why they shouldn't play good football. There is a much better mental attitude than was the case for Tulane a year ago.

"I honestly don't see how Pitt can win if the Trojans play the ball of which they are capable. Pitt's hope is to catch them off guard, slap over a couple of passes and then battle it out to the end.

"There is one angle I haven't seen mentioned anywhere, and that is the difference between the 1929 Pitt team and this one. If you look over the 1929 schedule you will discover that Ohio State and Nebraska were the only teams that amounted to a hoot on the program.

"Pitt felt it was almost completely untested when it bucked up against the Trojans. On the other hand, look at this year's schedule. It is really worth a comparison story.

"Bill Kern, who saw the Southern California-Notre Dame game, has a lot of confidence in Pitt. He told me, 'If they beat us, it will be by a small score, perhaps a field goal.' He thinks Pitt, being a good passing team, has as good a chance as anybody against U. S. C., because nobody figures to do much through their line when Jones' forwards are right.

"If Pitt stays out at Tucson until the day before the game, it will not be a sell-out. The bowl seats $4,000. There is a $4.40 top, with some seats at $1.65. Herb Dana, perhaps the best official the coast has ever had, at least in the last 15 years, makes his last appearance as a referee.

"Jock Sutherland and Howard Jones are really very much alike and I got a big kick out of Jock in Tucson, although he had very little time to spend with me.

"One of Pitt's problems will be to kick away from Warburton, but I have an idea that Dailey and Skladany will prove better on punts than Kosky and Host. Devore was by far Notre Dame's best end here."

JAMIESON GIVEN
INDIAN RELEASE

Wallace F. Baker, of Dallas, Texas, made five holes-in-one in 13 months.

Lillian Mae Patterns.

Five Aces.

Illustration by Thornton Rice.

News of the Churches

METHODIST.

CAPITAL VIEW METHODIST. With Dr. J. DeLoach, pastor. Services: 11 a. m. "Are New Year Resolutions Helpful or Harmful?" 7:30 p. m. "Backward Glances and Forward Movements."

UNDERWOOD MEMORIAL METHODIST. With Dr. J. DeLoach, pastor. Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Worship and communion. 11 a. m. Subject: "Progress and Christianity." 6:30 p. m. "The Mistakes of Yesterday." 8:30 p. m. "Adolescence."

MILTON MEMORIAL METHODIST. Preaching by pastor, Rev. C. B. McDowell. 11 a. m. "Forgotten in the Arms of Heaven." 7:30 p. m. "Heads Up—Backward Glances and Forward Movements."

PARK STREET METHODIST. Rev. W. E. Barnes, pastor. Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. "Remembrance of Jesus." 11 a. m. "The Atmosphere of the New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly." 9:30 p. m. "Heads Up—Heads Down."

ST. JAMES METHODIST. T. A. Pastel, pastor. Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. Preaching 11 a. m. "The Thread of Life." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly." 9:30 p. m. "Heads Up—Heads Down."

LAKWOOD HEIGHTS METHODIST. Rev. L. Russell, pastor. Services: 11 a. m. by pastor, with Dr. Stupper; 11 a. m. by Dr. L. Russell, presiding elder. At-large district, 7:30 p. m.

CALVARY METHODIST. Rev. W. E. Barnes, pastor. Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. "Leagues." 6:30 p. m.

BETHANY METHODIST. Y. A. Oliver, pastor. Services: 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly." 9:30 p. m. "Heads Up—Heads Down."

MARY BRANAN MEMORIAL METHODIST. Y. A. Oliver, pastor. Services: 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly." 9:30 p. m. "Heads Up—Heads Down."

GLENN MEMORIAL METHODIST. (Emory University) Willard Rogers, pastor. Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. "Westerly." 11 a. m. "Heads Up—Heads Down." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly." 9:30 p. m. "Leagues."

KENDREE METHODIST. Robert H. Lanigan, pastor. Morning subject: "Light for the New Year." Evening subject: "Practical Christianity." Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. "Westerly." 7:30 p. m. "Heads Up—Heads Down."

INMAN PARK METHODIST. Dr. C. M. Lipham will preach at 11 a. m. on "Looking Back Ways." Evening subject: "God's Proposition." Sunday school, 9:30 a. m.

DECATOR FIRST METHODIST. Rev. Horace Smith, pastor. Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. Preaching: 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. "Westerly." 9:30 p. m. "Heads Up—Heads Down." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

HAYGOOD MEMORIAL METHODIST. S. P. Wiggins, pastor. Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. "Westerly." 11 a. m. Preaching by pastor, followed by Dr. Stupper; 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

FAYNE MEMORIAL METHODIST. Rev. S. H. C. Bargin, pastor. Preaching 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. pastor preaching. Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. "Leagues." 6:30 p. m. "Westerly." 9:30 p. m. "Leagues."

M. T. VERNON METHODIST. Unified service. 10 a. m. "Heads Up—Heads Down Again." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly." 9:30 p. m. "Leagues." 6:30 p. m. "Westerly."

MARIA BROWN MEMORIAL METHODIST. Rev. H. A. Emory, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly." 9:30 p. m. "Leagues."

BEETHOVEN METHODIST. Rev. J. H. Jones, pastor. Services: 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. "Westerly." 9:30 p. m. "Heads Up—Heads Down."

ROCK SPRING METHODIST. Rev. W. F. Fraser, pastor. Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. "Westerly." 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. "Westerly." 9:30 p. m. "Heads Up—Heads Down."

WEST END METHODIST. Rev. J. A. Monsees, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The Open Portals." 7:30 p. m. "How to Make Progress."

OAKLAND CITY METHODIST. Rev. W. F. Fraser, pastor. Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. "Westerly." 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. "Westerly." 9:30 p. m. "Heads Up—Heads Down."

ST. MARK METHODIST. S. H. C. Bargin, D. D. minister. Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. "Westerly." 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. "Westerly." 9:30 p. m. "Heads Up—Heads Down."

GRANT PARK METHODIST. Preaching 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by pastor, R. F. Fraser. Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. "Westerly." 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

WOODLAWN PRESBYTERIAN. Harold C. Smith, minister. Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. "Westerly." 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. "Westerly." 9:30 p. m. "Heads Up—Heads Down."

WEST END PRESBYTERIAN. Rev. J. A. Flanagan, minister. Services: 11 a. m. "Westerly." 7:30 p. m. "Heads Up—Heads Down."

GRACE LUTHERAN. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHURCH OF THE MESSIAH. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7:30 p. m. "Westerly."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE. Rev. G. A. Albrecht, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. "The New Year." 7